

Quarter Final Spot at Stake

The victors in today's clash will be sure of a qualifying spot in the quarter finals of the N.F.L., not that such an incentive is needed to arouse the rivalry between these counties.

How many remember how Down thwarted Donegal hopes in Breffni Park in the early sixties when we were more than hopeful of our first Senior football title. In more recent times Down were extremely lucky to quench Donegal Championship hopes in Newcastle in 1986. The last meeting of these teams in McCumhaill Park in 1985 was one for Donegal supporters to cherish, coming from behind to snatch victory.

However, both teams have changed much since then and Donegal go out today as table toppers and the only undefeated team in Division 2 and with home advantage must feel confident of winning especially after their spirited win in Cavan last Sunday.

Down will be determined to gain Division 1 status again and with players of the calibre of Paddy Kennedy, Ross Carr, Paddy O'Rourke, Greg Blaney and Brendan Mason, they come full of confidence that they can win the day.

Every game Donegal play is 'a vital one', 'a test of character' or so we are told by the pundits. Last Sunday was said to be the ultimate test and this young spirited team did not let us down. With a taste of All Ireland victory albeit U-21 in the hearts of eleven of the team out there today, Donegal supporters are more than hopeful of success.
