Na Réiteoirí

TOMÁS Ó CUINNEAGÁIN (Gaillimh), the referee for today's Senior Football semi-final, is widely experienced at all levels of the Association's activities as a player, referee and administrator.

As a player, he numbers three Gaillimh Senior Football medals and three Connacht Junior medals - 1961, '66 and '69 - among his collection. As a referee, he has handled two All-Ireland Junior Finals (1966 and 1967), All-Ireland Minor and Under-21 semi-finals, last year's Railway Cup final and this year's Connacht Final.

As an administrator, Tom was chairman of the North Galway Board from 1969 to '73, was Gaillimh chairman from 1976 to '78 and is currently vice-chairman of Coiste Chontae na Gaillimhe and Comhairle Chonnachta.

With his club, Mountbellew, he is very involved with the training and coaching of under-age teams.

"WEESHIE" Ó FOGARTAIGH (Ciarraí), who is in charge of today's Cluiche Leath-Cheannais Sinsir, has been refereeing for the past eight years.

He has handled N.F.L. games all over the county and has refereed five Cluichí Ceannais Sinsir Chiarraí and has been in charge of finals in all other grades. Last year he refereed the All-Ireland Under-21 final between Corcaigh and Áth Cliath and the All-Ireland Club Final between St. Finbarrs (Corcaigh) and St. Grellans (Gaillimh).

In 1979 he was in charge of the Ceannaras semi-final between Áth Cliagh and Muineachán Weeshie is currently chairman of the Legion Club, Killarney, and is also chairman of the Chiarraí Referees Association. Married, with three children, he is a Psychiatric Nurse in St. Finian's Hospital.

MICHEÁL Ó SIORDÁIN (Áth Cliath), who is refereeing today's Cluiche Ceannais Iomána, is a native of Drombane, Thurles, and a member of the Ballyboden St. Enda's club.

Mick, who has refereed for the past five years, has handled a number of Colleges, Tournaments and Higher Education games in the Dublin area and refereed this year's Universities Provincial Final. He has handled hurling games at all levels in Dublin and coaches the Ard Scoil Rís hurling team.

A regular linesman i bPáirc an Chrócaigh, Mick is an employee with C.I.E.

Bank of Ireland GAA Allstars

These distinctive and expressive Bank of Ireland G.A.A. Allstar trophies have been designed by Dublin-born sculptor, Rowan Gillespie.

They are awarded to Ireland's finest footballers in recognition of their superb playing abilities and for the manner in which the recipients exemplify a true spirit of competitiveness and sportsmanship.

Trophies of a similar style are also awarded by Bank of Ireland to our Allstar hurlers.

The semi-final replay of 1960

AN DÚN 1-7
 UIBH FHÁILÍ 1-5

ON SEPTEMBER 12, 1960, An Dún and Uibh Fháilí met in the replay of the All-Ireland semi-final; on August 22 they had drawn on the scoreline of An Dún 1-10 Uibh Fháilí 2-10.

The Leinster champions, who had made all the early running in the drawn game, hit in the eighth minute when Charlie Wrenn's lofted sideline kick from under the Hogan Stand went direct to the An Dún net to put the Midlanders 1-3 to 0-2 in front. The next 19 minutes of the half were scoreless as the Ulster side missed several scoring chances.

Uibh Fháilí added another early point in the second half and before the 10th minute two points from James McCartan and one by Tony Hadden had cut the deficit to two points. Down came the rain and An Dún's first time methods began to be effective. After 13 minutes Sean O'Neill and Patsy O'Hagan combined to lob the ball into the goalmouth where Brian Morgan punched it to the net and the Ulster champions were on the road to victory.

As Uibh Fháilí dallied and dithered and made switches that didn't work, An Dún's moving of the subdued Joe Lennon away from Sean Foran proved a master stroke. In a hard game, played vigorously and fairly An Dún ran out deserving winners to qualify for their first All-Ireland Final – a meeting with Ciarraí.

An Dún: E. McKay; G. Lavery, L. Murphy, P. Rice; K. Mussen (capt.), D. McCartan, K. O'Neill; J. Lennon and K. Denvir; S. O'Neill, J. McCartan, P. Doherty; A. Hadden, P. O'Hagan, B. Morgan. Sub. – J. Carey for Denvir.

Uibh Fháilí: W. Nolan; P. McCormack, G. Hughes, J. Egan; P. O'Reilly, M. Brady, C. Wrenn; S. Ryan and S. Foran; D. O'Hanlon (capt.), T. Cullen, T. Greene; S. Brereton, M. Casey, H. Donnelly. Subs. A. Kelly for Ryan, P. Daly for Kelly.

Réiteóir: M. McArdle (Lú).

Do you collect programmes?

A G.A.A. Programme Collector's Club has been established at H.Q. Its aims are:

- To make G.A.A. programmes available to as many collectors as possible.
- To organise communications between individual collectors.
- To categorise and fix values on G.A.A. programmes according to age, condition and degree of scarcity.
- To bring publicity to and place the hobby in the notice of the public.
- To encourage the production of better programmes at G.A.A. matches.
- To offer advice to collectors on all matters involving programmes.

There is a £2.00 membership fee for the new club and all members will receive FREE copies of provincial finals, All-Ireland finals programmes for 1981.

Membership fees should be sent to: Programme Collectors' Club, Páirc an Chrócaigh, Áth Cliath 3.

How They Qualified

AN DÚIN opened their championship campaign by drawing 0-10 each with Muineachán at Newry before eliminating the Farreymen by 3-4 to 1-9 in the replay at Castleblaney at the end of June, and just a week later they qualified for the northern provincial decider by outscoring Doire at Clones by 0-12 to 0-9.

Fourteen days later – at the same venue – the Mourmemen captured their tenth Ulster title by accounting for Ard Mhacha by 3-12 to 1-10, thereby bringing their scoring aggregates to 6-38 (56) for, and 2-38 (44) against, representing respective averages of 14.00 and 11.00.

A total of twelve players managed to get onto the An Dun scoresheet, and their individual contributions were as follows: Brendan McGovern 1-17, John McCartan 3-3, Ambrose Rodgers 0-5, Greg Blaney 1-2, Damien Morgan 1-1, Ned Toner 0-3, Liam Austin 0-2, and Paddy O'Rourke, Ned King, Adrian McGranaghan, Brendan Toner and Jim McCartan 0-1 each.

UIBH FHÁILÍ began their defence of their Leinster championship by accounting for An Iar Mhi by 1-14 to 1-9 at Mullingar on the last day of May and four weeks later they qualified for their third consecutive provincial final by defeating Loch Garman at Croke Park by 1-16 to 0-14.

A month ago they returned to Headquarters and successfully defended their eastern crown by overcoming Laois by 1-18 to 3-9, thus bringing their scoring figures for the championship so far to 3-48 (57) for, and 4-32 (44) against, giving them match averages of 19.00 and 14.66, respectively.

Ten marksmen have contributed to Uibh Fáilí's 3-48 total, and their individual returns were as follows: Matt Connor 1-19, Brendan Lowry 2-10, Gerry Carroll 0-5, Thomas Connor and Sean Lowry 0-3 each, Mick Wright, John Mooney and Pat Fitzgerald 0-2 each, and John Moran and Aidan O'Halaran 0-1 each.

Opel Initiative '81

Makes you feel even more comfortable about a Rekord.

Opel Initiative is our way of saying that we are always looking for new ideas to make our cars more affordable. Drivers today want more equipment without more cost. While facing up to the hard facts of fuel consumption and reliability, they also want to be assured that driving will still give as much comfort as it does pleasure. Look closely at the Opel Rekord. You'll see that through our Initiative '81 programme, it meets the tough demands of today's motoring in even better style than before.

Opel engineering for Rekord reliability

The two things you expect of a well engineered car are that it should be reliable and built to last. And the Opel Rekord offers you both qualities in abundance.

The Rekord says a lot about you and your Company

When you are using a car for business, it has to look good enough to reflect the quality of your product, whilst not appearing flashy.

Take a look at the Rekord's clean, uncluttered lines. That's style. And it's not there because a designer thought it looked good. The basic shape was created to cut down fuel consumption and that gives you a car that's designed to accommodate your pocket as well as you and your Company's image.

The Rekord has all the luxury you are looking for at a very affordable price

If everything you've heard about the Rekord so far gives you a comfortable feeling, wait until you experience the luxury that's waiting inside. There's a radio, cloth upholstery, halogen headlights, remote control driver's mirror, driver's seat height adjuster and protective side mouldings. All included in the list price. Now that really is value for money! Add to that a choice of saloon or estate, petrol or quiet diesel and you've got a car that guarantees you a great deal.
