STRANGERS & BROTHERS?

Both today's teams have sets of brothers playing. On the Kilcar team are the McHugh Brothers, Mark and James, the Carrs, John, Maurice and James and the McBreartys, Seamus and Gerald.

On the Scotstown side we have the Caulfields Fergus, Gerard and Michael, the McKennas, Niall and Sean and the McCarvilles, Sean, Seamus and Paul while Damien Stirrat is a brother of team selector Liam. Our heading doesn't suggest that the rest of the players on either side are strangers, at least not to their respective team mates.

Kilcar have won the Donegal Senior Championship on three occasions, 1925, 1980, and this year 1985 while Scotstown can boast of 11 Monaghan titles, 1960, 1961, 1974, 1977, 1978, 1979, 1980, 1981, 1983, 1984 and 1985.

Kilcar reached this stage with wins over Ardara (in fact they played them three times, the last in a play off) a quarter-final victory over Downings and over Aodh Rua in the semi-final after a replay, beating Four Masters in the final. Scotstown accounted for Aghnamullan in the 1st round, Carrickmacross in the quarter final, Clontibret (the host club today) in the semi-final and defeated arch rivals Castleblayney in an exciting final just a week ago at this same venue.

These sides have met once before in the Ulster Club series - that was in 1980 in Ballybay. On that occasion, Scotstown came out on top by 6 points and in fact, went on to take the Ulster Club title for the third time. Their other victories were in 1978 & 1979.

The winners of today's game meet Ramor United of Cavan in the next round on November 20th.
