FÁILTE

Ba mhaith liom fáilte a chur roimh na peileadoirí agus na hoifigigh as Corcaigh agus lucht leanúna ó gach áird.

I would like to welcome you all here today with a special welcome to All-Ireland champions, Cork. The Donegal v Cork games in the past few years have produced tough and exciting encounters and I'm sure today's game will be no exception.

Being the first game in 1991, I hope you will continue to support the county team as you have in the past and good luck to all concerned with their efforts to bring success to our county.

Go raibh míle maith agaibh as ocht an cuireadh a thug sibh duinn i rith na bhliain.

THE TWIN TOWNS – BALLYBOFEY & STRANORLAR

Situated at the foot of Barnesmore Gap and on either side of the River Finn are the Twin Towns of Ballybofey and Stranorlar. The towns have a history going back to the Plantation of Ulster and the Past Celtic Lord was Sir Garth O'Donnell. Probably the Twin Towns greatest son was Isaac Butt, Q.C., M.P., Patriot, Lawyer, Political Economist, Journalist and Philosopher, who in 1813 was born a few miles west of the towns and lived at Rectory, Stranorlar, until 1829.

BUSINESS

Commercially the Twin Towns have really progressed over recent years with McElhinney Stores being one of the top retail stores in the country.

At Ballybofey there is a fantastic new shopping centre and elsewhere in the Twin Towns there are major business expansions. At Stranorlar, Finn Valley A.C. is presently undertaking a major development which will provide the area with some of the most modern facilities in the country.

“THE TWINS FESTIVAL” –

11th-14th JULY, 1991

A local festival was organised in 1989 and it is most appropriate that it is called “The Twins Festival” as Ballybofey and Stranorlar are known throughout the country as the Twin Towns.

Festival events include Funfare, Talent Competition, Truck/Car Driving Competition, It's A Knockout

Competition, Barpersons Race, GAA Competition, Pet Shows, Bonny Baby Competition, Street Music, Football Competition, Treasure Hunt, Fishing Competition, Dances, Discos and much, much more. A major Industrial Parade including Marching Bands is held through the Twin Towns on the Saturday afternoon and it is a sight not to be missed. This is followed by the selection of Junior Twins competition which attracts entries from many counties and is divided into three sections – under 4 years, under 8 years and up to 12 years. Senior Twins competition only started in 1990 and it attracted entries from Donegal, Tyrone, Sligo, Clare, Meath, Dublin and parts of England.

The 1990 winners were Maura and Sally Duddy from Omagh, Co. Tyrone. Judging comprises of 70% Personality, 20% Presentation and 10% Lookalike. Judging this year will be held on Thursday and Friday, July 11th and 12th, and all entrants will receive over these two days free Bed and Breakfast plus evening meal.

The 1991 Committee now seek Twins from Malin Head or Mizen Head, Armagh or Glasgow, Liverpool or Dover. Whether twins are two boys, two girls or a boy and girl, all are welcome. For further information and entry forms, please contact Colm Campbell, Woodlawn, Stranorlar, Co. Donegal. Telephone (074) 31019, or Paul McGowan, Main Street, Ballybofey, Co. Donegal. Telephone (074) 32222.

Best of luck to the Donegal Teams.

Prop: DONAL MONAGHAN

Ireland's first lady of the G.A.A.

By Peter Campbell (Donegal Democrat)

Donegal's name in the country's GAA records may not hold a prominent position, but the decision of the recent Donegal Co. Board GAA Convention to elect 33-year-old Noreen Doherty as County Secretary was a first for the Association.

Her selection did not cause much of a stir among the delegates at Convention and surely this was a reflection of the fact that she had already been accepted as part of the GAA establishment in Donegal.

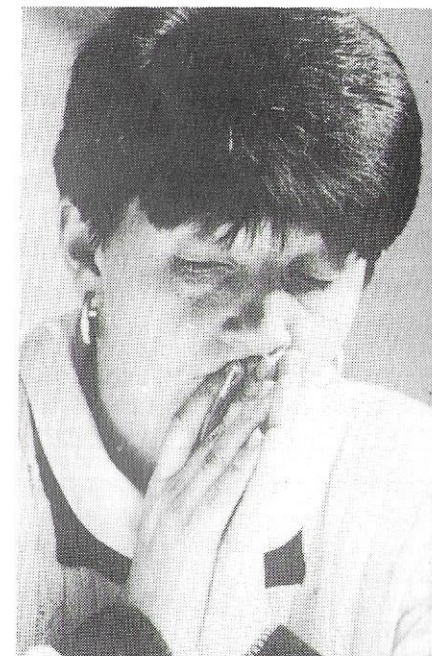

Involved in the GAA as secretary of host club for today's game, Sean MacCumhaills, since the age of 22, Noreen had been Assistant County Secretary in 1987, 1989 and 1990, before her promotion.

From a staunch GAA background, she will have the added comfort of having big brother, P. J. McGowan, alongside her on the Donegal Executive. And in the background husband, Aiden, is one of her strongest supporters.

The family involvement in MacCumhaills was evident last week when she was present to see the club lift the Division One Shield title in Ballyshannon with brother, P. J. adding the insurance point in injury time.

Noreen also has a deep involvement in Scór and is the current Scór Co. Treasurer.

The past week has been a hectic week for the new secretary. Apart from attending the Shield final on Sunday last, on Monday night she attended her first Co. Board meeting as secretary, and today she will be on the sideline with the Donegal senior team for the first time.

The Stranorlar housewife is looking forward to her new and important role in Donegal GAA affairs. Today's Donegal team list will carry a new signature. Maybe she will bring that little bit of luck needed to bring our county team to Croke Park for the third Sunday in September.

Best wishes from Carmel and the girls to Donegal

Corcaigh – “Na Reibiliúnaigh”!

Le Séamus de Faoite (Oifigeach na Gaeilge)

Ní go ró-mhinic a bhíonn buaiteoirí Craobh Ceannais na hÉireann inár measc. Inniu tá caomhnóirí an teideal cháiliúl sin faoi láthair mar aoianna againn i bPáirc Shéain Mhíic Cumhaill agus cuireann muid fáilte rompu agus roimh a n-oifigigh.

B'iontach an bhliain seo caite do na buaiteoirí — ardcheannasach san iománaíocht agus sa pheil. Is maith an comhartha é dóibh fá choinne ant-am atá le teacht agus is beag contae ar mian leí dul i gcoimhlint le “Contae na Reibiliúnach” i rith 1991. Bhí ré glómhar acu agus thug muintir Chorcaigh a gcion féin do Chumann Lúthchleas Gael. Thig liom a rá go firinneach gur obair siad i gconaí ar mhaithe le rudaí Gaelach agus naisiúnta.

Is maith is eol dóibh fá na rudaí uilig a chuir siad i gcrích agus iad ag teacht anseo inniu, agus tá meas agus urraim againn dóibh da bharr.

Sin uilig ráite, níor sheachainn muidinne i dtalamh na nDálach ár ndualgaisí ariamh — cé acu ar an mhachaire catha nó ar pháirc na himeartha. Bhí an bhua againn orthu aroimhe agus tá sé ar a gcumas í a fháil arís.

Leis an bhua a fáil in aon rud, ach go speisialta i bpeil, caithfidh muid a bheith inchurtha leis an ócaid. Ní thig le duine ar bith scith a ligean in aon áit ar an pháirc. Caithfidh na himreoirí an cluiche a ghlacadh mar chúram orthu féin ar fea na huaire agus rún buaite acu chomh maith. Is ansin amháin a thig linn an bhua a fáil ar na “Reibiliúnaigh”.

Chuir an foireann seo againn féin a lán i gcrích chomh maith le roinnt blianta anuas. Ní thig linn dearmad a dhéanamh agus caithfidh muid onóir a thabhairt do na foireainn faoi-21 a thug glór onóir go dtí an chontae seo sna ochtóidí. Bhí foireainn mhaithe mionúir againn fosta. Chuir na rudaí seo uilig le chéile le fórsa láidir a dhéanamh denár bhfoireann le bheith sa chomhaireamh chomh maith le cách. Ní trácht aon bhóthar a bheidh ann inniu. Tá súil agam le coimhlint ghéar, ach ní miste caidé an toradh, caithfidh an bhua a bheith ag an pheil ghaelach. Tá fhios agam go mbéidh, nuair atá foireainn de mhianach Chorcaigh agus Dún na nGall sa choimhlint.

Thig linne i nDún na nGall a bheith muiníneach as an chluiche seo. Má fhágheann muid láimh an uachtair inniu, cé a bheidh buartha fá Ard Mhacha nó Roscomáin . . . tá ár lá tagtha!

Reliable understudy

By Michael Daly, Sports Editor, Donegal Democrat, and North West Radio

For the foreseeable future Michael Kelly, the Donegal sub. goalkeeper, will remain just that, unless Gary Walsh defects to Down or suffers a complete loss of form.

Michael Kelly, from the Four Masters Club, is in many ways in a similar position to Gerry Peyton, understudy to Glasgow Celtic and Republic of Ireland 'keeper, Packie Bonner.

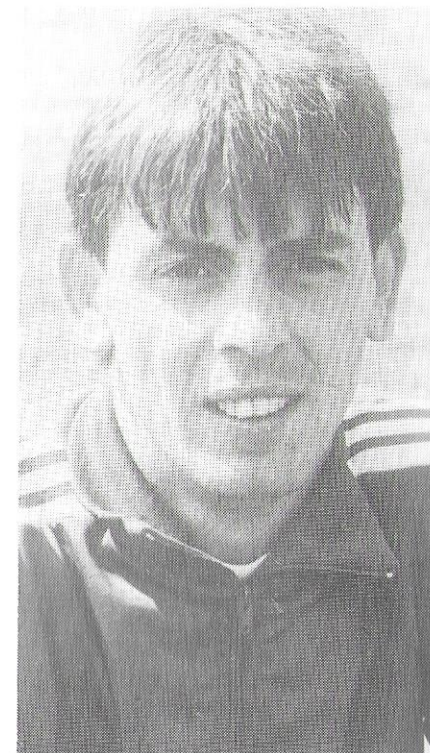

It's a role for Kelly which must, at times, give rise to frustration. Yet, year in, year out, Michael has been there, appeared as sure as another dawn, No. 16, Michael Kelly.

He's a good goalkeeper, not just there for the ride. Kelly's kickouts are more varied than Walsh's, his reflexes are a shade sharper. He would be a better soccer goalkeeper than Gary Walsh, however, the game is Gaelic and Walsh's huge frame, his experience gained as patient understudy to Noel McCole and for a time, understudy to Kelly when Walsh lost form in the view of former manager, Tom Conaghan, is part of the reason why Michael Kelly will remain No. 16.

It's a view that Michael would probably agree with himself; he respects Walsh's undoubted ability but Kelly's greatest quality, which has largely gone unnoticed by the print media in Donegal, is his loyalty to the county team.

Donegal need a second 'keeper, Gary Walsh and Michael Kelly know that and to his credit Michael Kelly has stuck to his task and at all times been a regular attender at training and a very involved member of the squad.

Kelly's easy manner, his turn of phrase, his ability to mix with all squad members are an important part of building squad morale.

Older than Walsh, Michael Kelly has achieved considerable success himself and at various grades he has served his county with distinction.

Apart from two Senior Club Championships with his Donegal Town club, Four Masters, his greatest moment surely has to be as net minder in 1982 when Donegal won that famous All-Ireland Under-21 victory. Michael Kelly has been in and out of the county scene ever since.

He deserves recognition for his contribution, his loyalty; I hope he gets it.
