Pauric

by Michael McGeary (Sunday Life)

Drawn championship matches between Donegal and Cavan revive a host of memories for Pauric McShea.

The former Donegal and Ulster star now Regional Financial consultant with AIB Ark Life figured in no fewer than eight championship meetings between these old adversaries.

He first crossed Swords with Cavan as a 16-year old in the 1965 championship playing in the unfamiliar role of left corner forward. That game ended all square and it took two replays before Cavan progressed before eventually losing to Down in the provincial decider.

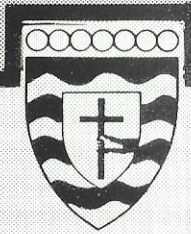

It was a measure of his striking versatility that he lined out at full forward in the first replay. Twelve months later Donegal got the better of Cavan with Pauric then operating at centre half forward. Twenty years ago he was full-back when Donegal edged out their old adversaries en route to their first Ulster senior championship title.

The popular Ballyshannon man's love affair with the sport shows no sign of waning. Ideally placed to assess this afternoon's replay, he is typical honest and forthright.

He said "We're delighted to have a second chance and hopefully this time we'll get the right result. "Home advantage should be enough to see us through." Last Sunday's match was something special, a real shot in the arm for the Ulster championship and we'll all settle for the same again.

Two sporting teams totally committed to attack served up an epic that will live forever in the memory. Is it too much to ask for an encore?
