Teachtaireacht an Chathaoirligh

Ba mhaith liom mar Chathaoirleach ar Choiste Chondae Dhún na nGall, fáilte a chuir roimh Gaeil ó gach cearn de'n Chontae chuig na cluichí ceannais inniu. Cuirim fáilte speisialta roimh na peileadóirí agus lucht leanúna na foirne ata ag glacadh pairt ins na cluichí ceannais inniú.

It is a great pleasure and privilege to welcome all four teams to MacCumhaill Park today. County senior final day is a special day in our sporting calendar. Both clubs have come through very tough campaigns to reach today's final. Naomh Columba are in their third final in the '90s, while Aodh Ruadh are back in the senior final after an absence of five years.

With a pairing that has never appeared before, all Gaels in the county are looking forward to a great game between these sides. There have been some great contests in the Senior Championship to date, and hopefully, today's contest will be an exciting climax.

In the Senior Reserve Championship final, the contestants are familiar names with Kilcar and Killybegs meeting in a repeat of the 1991 final. Again the cream has come to the top in this section, and hopefully we will have a contest that befits the occasion.

I welcome also the players of the St. Joseph's and St. Eunan's teams of 1968 and 1969 respectively as we continue the policy of honouring the winners from 25 years ago.

I congratulate all the officials who have been selected to officiate at today's matches, and I also commend our PRO, Peter Hughes, for the work he has put into the preparation of this County final programme.

Tá súil agam go mbeidh feásta peile againn inniu.

Beir bua agus beannacht,

NIALL Mac CUMHAILL
Cathaoirleach, Coiste Condae.

St. Joseph's — County Champions 1968

Last year the first Donegal senior team to play in Croke Park (in 1952) was honoured on county final day. This year the county champions of 1968 and 1969 are honoured.

Seán MacCumhaills won the county championship in 1962-1963-1964. Bundoran and Ballyshannon amalgamated to form St. Joseph's in 1963. St. Joseph's won their first county championship in 1965 (and went on to win seven championships in all). St. Eunan's beat St. Joseph's in the 1967 final. The 1968 championship was eagerly awaited. It proved to be one of the most bizarre county championships ever.

Eleven teams entered the 1968 championship. There were four sections:

Section 1: Gweedore and Na Piarraigh.

Section 2: Dungloe, St. Eunan's and Inishowen.

Section 3: St. Patrick's, Ardara and Seán MacCumhaills.

Section 4: St. Joseph's, Clanna Gael and Glenties.

Two teams from each section were to qualify for the quarter-finals.

Sections 1 and 3 ran smoothly. Gweedore topped Section 1. Ardara topped section 3 with MacCumhaills as runners up. In section 4 St. Joseph's and Clanna Gael finished on equal points. St. Joseph's won the toss. In section 2 Inishowen beat Dungloe twice; St. Eunan's beat Dungloe in Letterkenny but Dungloe beat St. Eunan's in Dungloe. St. Eunan's beat Inishowen twice but Inishowen protested since St. Eunan's were late in fielding in Carndonagh. They won the protest and topped the section.

The quarter-finals went thus:

St. Joseph's 3-19; Na Piarraigh 1-3.

St. Eunan's 2-10; Ardara 2-6.

MacCumhaills 4-7, Inishowen 1-7.

Gweedore w.o.; Clanna Gael scr.

Clanna Gael had requested a post-ponment of their match against Gweedore since 11 of their 25-man panel were unavailable. The request was refused. Clanna Gael then went to Ulster Council claiming that there should have been Divisional final play-off instead of a toss. Meanwhile the County semi-final was played.

St. Joseph's 1-11, MacCumhaills 0-7.

But now the Ulster Council upheld Clanna Gael's appeal. And they also upheld a second Inishowen appeal against St. Eunan's. Inishowen claimed St. Eunan's played an illegal player in the second match in Letterkenny. This meant Inishowen had full points (4 on the field against Dungloe, 4 in the boardroom against St. Eunan's). It meant Dungloe were back in the championship since they were on equal points with St. Eunan's.

A County Board meeting in late August decided that St. Joseph's would go straight through to the county final by virtue of the number of games they had played and that all the other seven qualifiers (including St. Eunan's and Dungloe but not Inishowen for some reason) would play-off the other final spot. St. Eunan's proceeded to beat Na Piarraigh in the revamped draw by 1-12 to 1-8.

But hold it! The next County Board meeting reversed the late August decision. Not alone were St. Joseph's not in the county final — they had to play a game before their quarter-final!

It was decided that the two Divisional play-offs would be played — St. Joseph's v. Clanna Gael; and St. Eunan's v. Dungloe (to decide who would come second to Inishowen). Clanna Gael beat St. Joseph's and St. Eunan's beat Dungloe 1-7 to 0-4.

Now it was quarter final time.

Clanna Gael 2-13, Na Piarraigh 1-5.

St. Joseph's 0-13, Gweedore 2-5.

St. Eunan's w.o.; Ardara scr.

MacCumhaills v Inishowen.

It wasn't clear why Ardara didn't field and it was decided that since MacCumhaills had already beaten Inishowen in a quarter-final there wasn't much point in doing it again!

The semi-finals went like this:

MacCumhaill's 2-7, Clanna Gael 0-6.
St. Joseph's 1-9, St. Eunan's 0-8.

And so, St. Joseph's had reached the county final, having played two quarter-finals, two semi-finals, having been beaten twice by Clanna Gael, having beaten MacCumhaills in the semi-final and finally having played two epic games against Dunmore McHales to win the unofficial All-Ireland Club Championship in the meantime...

The final on October 13 was disappointing.

St. Joseph's 1-10, Seán MacCumhaills 0-5.

St. Joseph's: Alan Kane; Teddy Kane, Pauric McShea, Michael P. Daly; Brian McEniff (0-1), Brendan Dowling, Thomas Quinn; Brendan McHugh (1-2) and Declan O'Carroll (0-1); Séamie Granaghan (0-2), Peter Quinn, Michael McLoone (0-2); Kieran Blake, Andy Barrett, Martin Carney (0-2).

Brendan Concannon, Danny McHugh and Josie Boyle had played in the semi-final while Owen Roe O'Neill and Christy Coughlan had played in the quarter-final against Gweedore. Liam McDaid and Kieran Dolan had played in the first quarter-final against Na Piarasigh. Brian McEniff was the captain. Among others on the panel were Joe O'Neill and Seán Murray. St. Joseph's went on to beat Ederney 6-10 to 3-3 and Crosserlough 2-7 to 1-6 before losing to Bellaghy in the Ulster Club final 0-8 to 0-5.

The MacCumhaill's line-out in the 1968 final was: Tony Caulfield; Phil Roddy, Jack Kelly, John Dan McMenamin; Seamus Temple, Liam McMenamin, Tommy McMenamin; Michael McMenamin and Frankie McFeely; Bernard Lafferty, Eunan Laverty, Hugh Temple; Michael Doherty, Sean Young, Eugene Gallagher; Subs: Harry Laverty and Francis Doherty.

Patsy Devlin (Tyrone) refereed the final.

GREAT TEAM

There is no doubt that the St. Joseph's team which won seven county championships between 1965 and 1976 was one of the greatest club sides in the history of Donegal football. McEniff, McShea and Granaghan played on all seven county finals — and won.

Kilcar, finding players to continue consistent success at Reserve level

By Michael Daly, Sports Editor, Donegal Democrat

Today, Kilcar field two teams in county finals and when you know the extent of emigration from Kilcar and, indeed, neighbours, Glencolmcille, you cannot but marvel at how they consistently churn out teams that reach and often win finals, irrespective of the grade.

Kilcar senior reserves won the first such title in 1991 in a dramatic tussle against Killybegs who again are their opponents today. That particular team's nucleus has been kept together by their player-manager, Sean McGinley, who is temporarily out of football following a leg break in June.

In 1991 a stunning late goal from Gerry Carr paved the way for a late win but Kilcar's performances in the subsequent league competition proved they were worthy champions.

Kilcar's achievement in fielding three adult teams is remarkable when the level of emigration and movement on a short term basis from the area is considered.

However, in their case, what is more remarkable is the high level of success these second and third teams enjoy. Most clubs could scratch up a third team if they so desired but little would be expected from them.

Last year, Kilcar seniors won the championship as did their juniors. While those trophies were being polished another wound its way 'in through', the Senior Reserve League title — for a second year in a row.

Kilcar are no longer merely putting out a group of 15 players, they are fielding winning combinations. In 1990 an Aodh Ruadh team on which, Peter Campbell reminds me, I was a sub., won the first ever Senior Reserve County final but a year later Kilcar took the honours against a Killybegs team who were caught by a late goal.

That Kilcar team has changed only a little in terms of personnel and they demonstrated they were worthy champions, albeit in dramatic style, by winning the League in the following year, 1992 and 1993.

Indeed, in 1992 Kilcar reached the Reserve final yet again, but lost to a formidable St. Eunan's outfit. Looking at their league run so far this year, they have played less games than any other team (eight) but remain only four points off the leaders, Aodh Ruadh and Gaoth Dobhair who have 16 points.

That sort of consistent form is a tribute to the dedication of all their players and their manager, Sean McGinley.

Because of an injury, McGinley will be unable to play today but from the bench he will be hoping to make all the right decisions to ensure yet another title comes to the parish.

When the dust settles later this evening from the senior game I expect a large number of Kilcar supporters to still be in Ballybofey, following their future stars at under-14 level with the same gusto enjoyed by their senior team.

Carr back to his best

By Charlie Joe McGinley (Derry People and Donegal News)

What a week it promises to be for 29-years-old Seamus Carr. Today he will be hoping to win his second and Naomh Columba's third county senior football championship title.

In a week's time he will be cheering on his nephew in the All-Ireland final. Seamus is an uncle of Dublin's ace corner-forward, Dessie Farrell, and even the most casual observer will immediately spot a resemblance both in appearance and style of play.

Dessie has been a frequent visitor to the Glencolmcille area since he was a young boy and attended the Donegal Championship quarter-final clash between "Glen" and parish rivals, Kilcar, recently. He has a strong affinity with the Glencolmcille area, particularly Crove, the home of his mother, Anne, who is now married to Sean Farrell, a native of Kildare who now lives in Dublin.

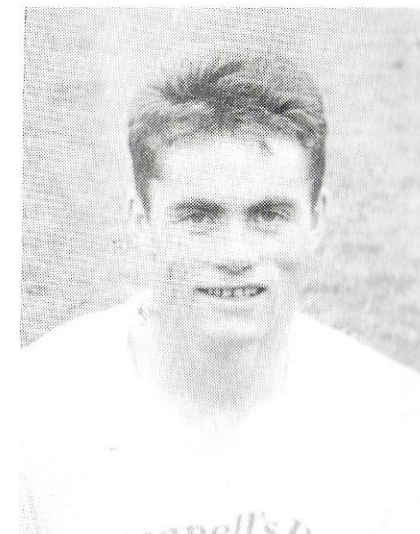

"Dessie has been coming to this area since he was about four or five years old. He would have been at the final but he is too busy preparing for the All-Ireland final," Seamus said this week.

"However, I hope to see him after the All-Ireland final next Sunday," Seamus added.

Carr, a factory worker for Errigal Fish Ltd. in Menaneary (about seven players in the Glen team work there), has just come back after a lengthy absence because of a knee injury.

"It is still not right but, thankfully, I am able to get through the matches. If it holds for just one more game I will be happy," he said.

Seamus played National League for Donegal in 1989 under Tom Conaghan's reign but failed to appear in the Championship. This year he has struck up a great partnership with Paddy Hegarty and the duo have played no small part in bringing Glen to the final.

"Things have been going well for myself and Paddy this year but we will be up against a very strong Aodh Ruadh defence this time. I saw them against Killybegs and I was very impressed with their defence, particularly full-back, Eamonn O'Donnell, and young forwards such as Brian Roper, who seemed to combine very well," Seamus said.

"Having said that, we have a good blend of youth and experience in our side this year and we have been building towards this day for a few years. There isn't much between the teams and it should be a good game. We have trained really hard so, hopefully, that will pull us through," Carr concluded.

Welcome from the P.R.O.

A Cairde Gael,

I am very proud to welcome everybody to MacCumhaill Park today for the showpiece of our gaelic calander. Every club in the county want to be part of this great occasion and work and train with the championship goal in mind yet only two teams will contest the finals. We all know who the favourites were — but are they here today? This is one of the exciting aspects of our games — not knowing who will perform and rise to the big championship occasion. Its all on the day and today will be no different. Will it be Ballyshannon? or will it be the boys from Glencolmcille? Who knows! but what a game in prospect.

As Co. P.R.O. of our Association I am delighted to be part of the final day and I welcome the senior finalists Naomh Columba and Aodh Ruadh also the reserve finalists Kilcar and Killybegs. This game too should be an exciting affair from the neighbouring teams.

I especially welcome the champions of 1968-1969 St. Josephs and St. Eunans. Their great achievements have not been forgotten. I hope they enjoy the day and my best wishes for the future.

I would like to show appreciation to all our sponsors who are called on often and never let us down — especially our main sponsors this year — Donegal Parian

China.

A special thanks to all the G.A.A supporters in Donegal for their continue support and maybe next year they will be able to sit in the new stand that is overdue and well deserved. There is no reason why this venture cannot be completed and our main venue brought up to modern standards. The obstacles and problem delaying this development must be overcome so I would like to wish all the best to P. J. McGowan for the future with the Donegal senior team and in time there will be plenty to cheer about in the Hill of Donegal.

Thanks to the Twin Towns band who always do themselves proud at this venue and all over the country. They are a credit to the town and county.

Again thanks to the press, Highland Radio, Radio na Gaeltacht for their excellent coverage of our games.

Go raibh mile maith agaibh go leir.

— Peadar MacAodha
Peter Hughes (P.R.O.)

Celebrating 25 years as a referee this year: 1969 - 1994

Thomas McBrearty (St. Nauls)

Thomas McBrearty, St. Nauls, aged 45 married to Maureen with 3 children.

He has been actively involved in refereeing since the spring of '69. Has refereed finals at all ages in the county including two senior football finals (1977 and 1989) and 11 Senior Hurling finals. He is also on the Inter County Hurling panel. Is secretary of the Referee's Board in Donegal and County Co-ordinator on the Ulster Council. Still trains three days a week and still retains a great interest in athletics having spent many years with the Killybegs A.C. Has seen our games change dramatically over the past 25 years, they are now much faster and demand greater fitness from both players and referees. He has had the pleasure of sharing the same playing fields with so many great players too many to mention here, but Martin Carney, Martin Griffen, Andy Curran John Hannigan and Joe Winston comes to mind, of course all the stars of the All-Ireland champions of 1992 and Martin McHugh as he says himself in the words of Tina Turner "Simply the Best".

Co-incidentally, Liam Brown, referee for to-days Senior final is a work colleague of Thomas, and it was through Thomas's badgering and coaxing that Liam took up refereeing, something Thomas is very proud of.

Thomas's wish for to-days two games are for good clean sporting games and said "If the players get the same enjoyment out of playing as referees get from being in charge then what more can one ask for."
