FAILTE

Ba mhaith liom fáilte mór a chuir roimh gach duine go Bealach Feich inniu. Cuirim fáilte roimh na imireóirí, na h-oifigí agus lucht leanúna na fairne atá ag imirt anseo inniú.

To-day we have our first game in the Church & General National Football League and we welcome the Cork team, management and officials to MacCumhaill Park.

After topping the Division One table for the last two years, our expectations are once again aimed at the top for 1996/'97 and we look forward to sporting encounters over the winter months.

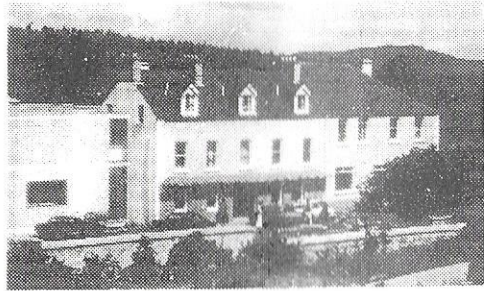

In welcoming Cork for our first game, we wish their new manager, Larry Tompkins, well in his new position. Larry was a model footballer and he has strong links with our county, having played for Donegal New York for quite a number of years.

Our thanks to the MacCumhaills Club for producing today's match programme and we urge the Donegal supporters to once more get behind our team for the new Church & General League campaign.

"Player Of The Year"

LARRY TOMPKINS

Our "Player of the Year" for 1985 was the popular Larry Tompkins. Larry joined us last year from his native Eadestown in Kildare. In the home county he has an impressive football record. At intercounty level he played simultaneously for the Minor, Under-21 and Senior teams. Starting at age 16 Larry played three years Minor, five years Under-21 and seven years Senior. Among his many achievements during this period he won a Leinster Under-21 Medal and was selected to the All-Star team.

With Donegal-New York in the 1985 Senior Football Championship his name became known to all G.A.A. fans. On the field he was the driving force for the team. From his centerhalf forward position he was our leading scorer. In the pressure games he produced his best football - the sign of a truly great athlete.

On and off the playing field Larry is always a gentleman. He possesses an integrity to fairness and sportsmanship that is rare. He works hard at his game and for the game. His commitment to hard work goes back to his early teens and is now a continuous part of his life. It is no mystery why he is one of the great players of our time. His presence and example encourages others on the team to work harder and that is the essence of leadership. Honest effort has produced in him a humble confidence that continues to grow.

Donegal is a better club because of him.

Donal Gallagher,
Manager, Donegal New York.

Nuair a ghlacfaidh imreoirí chois Laoi nó na reibiliúnaigh a n-áith ar pháirc Sheáin Mhic Cumhaill inniu, táimid siúraithe go ndéanfaidh cúig cloigne déag atá ullamh agus réidh, a ndícheall log a chuir i bpeil Thír Chonaill. Tá gach réasún acu seo a dhéanamh nuair a smaoinneann siad ar choimhlintí roimh seo, go speisialta sa tsraith le gairid.

Admháim go raibh ár sáith do thuas seal agus thíos seal againne le tamall. Bhí am ann agus b'iad Corcaigh na máistirí agus bhí radharc amháin ar na dathanna dearg agus bán go leor fiú leis an Ríocht nearnhar a scanrú. Déarfa go raibh siad faoi thionchar ag Naomh Fionnbharr ar a laghad suas go dtí an t-am a raibh an bhua acu san pheil agus san iomáin sa bhliain chéanna.

Bhíodh sin mar atá, tháinig athrú ar rudaí agus tá spiorad na coimhlinte ina lán contaethe anois, go háirithe

Tagann imreoirí Chorcaigh ar aistear againn inniu agus súil acu le bua, ach níl an réamhaisnéis acu. Cuireann muid fáilte agus céad rompu agus roimhe a n-oifigigh chomh maith agus abran muid leo go léir — tagann sibh imeasc cairde, chuig contae a bhfuil ard mheas aici ar a cluichí agus ar a cultúir. Tá súil againn go mbainfidh sibh taitneamh as bhur gcuairet ach tá súil againn fosta go mbeidh an bhua ceilte oraibh ag deireadh an lae.

Ag an bpointe ama seo tá an t-ádh i gcaipíní na laochra agus teastaíonn na laochra uainn agus tá na laochra againn.

MURPHY & CO., Ballybofey

Drapers since 1939

Wishing the Donegal team every success

Martin Coll (22) from Middletown in Derrybeg will play only his second National Football League game for Donegal today at Ballybofey.

The third eldest in a family of four, he is a son of Freddie and Helena Coll and according to his mother "he has been playing football for as long as she can remember."

Naturally, Martin's parents and three sisters, Dara, Bridgena and Treásá are delighted with Martin's progression to the senior ranks, but they are joined by a large body of people - perhaps an older generation - who still believe a Donegal team is incomplete without a Gaoth Dobhair man.

Martin takes up the mantle for the Gaoth Dobhair club from Donal 'Dods' Breslin, their most recent county player, but there have been some household names from the Gaoth Dobhair club who have played for the county over the years - among them Anton Carroll, Neilly Gallagher, Hughie Tim Boyle, the Coyles, Hudai Beag Gallagher (who was on the first Ulster team to win a Railway Cup in 1942).

Interestingly there was a P. Coll from Gaoth Dobhair who played for Donegal in 1937, all of which augurs well for Martin.

But Martin has been making his own headlines too. Speaking to him on Thursday he mentioned with some pride that he had an U-21 county championship medal with Gaoth Dobhair and there are other juvenile honours, with the exception of a club minor medal - a medal I think he's disappointed not to have.

Big and strong, Martin came to the notice of John Joe O'Shea when he played for Pobalscoil Gaoth Dobhair and was selected by him at full-back for the 1992 Vocational School team which won the Ulster title that year, going down to Kerry in Ballinasloe, Martin moving to centre-half back for the injured Damien Diver.

A little later in the year Sean Ward placed him at centre-half back for the minor team, Donegal losing the Ulster final to Armagh.

In 1994 P. J. McGowan, in his final year as Under-21 team manager, selected Martin to play at centre-back against Fermanagh in Irvinestown but Donegal were beaten by the Erne county who went on to win the Ulster title.

A year later Martin was back again for the U-21s, this time under a new boss, Donal Reid, who brought him in as a sub at semi-final stage against Fermanagh. Coll almost immediately conjured up the vital pass which led to an equally vital Brian Roper goal.

Not surprisingly, he started the final, Donegal against Cavan - Martin McHugh against Donal Reid in management terms. Donegal were happy with a draw, Coll starting at centre-half forward and moving to midfield. For the replay Martin was started at midfield and he had a towering afternoon - his best ever game in a county jersey, Donegal winning, Martin scoring two points.

When Donegal went down to Kerry at semi-final stage, Martin received a letter from now senior manager, P. J. McGowan, inviting him to join the county panel.

"That was September 1995 and I have been with them ever since but a groin injury has curtailed my involvement until now," explained Martin. He played in a number of challenge games - against Mayo and Leitrim and then got his big chance, playing in November '95 against Kerry in the NFL.

Donegal lost that one but Coll didn't lose heart. He didn't get a second chance until today to prove his worth and now he tells me he's "fully fit and looking forward to the game."

Martin, who works with Bio Medical Research in Gaoth Dobhair - a company who provide equipment often used by injured players, says he's "happy to get the chance to play for the county" and it's a sentiment that will echo around the county as a Gaoth Dobhair man, a native Irish speaker, lines out at midfield for Tir Chonail.

Valid points from top marksman

The call this week by county chairman, Danny McNamee, for the association in Donegal to hold a serious discussion into the running of domestic competitions has been backed by Manus Boyle.

by Ciaran O'Donnell

Manus, who chalked up 4-54 in Killybegs' nine championship games in Donegal - he scored seven points against St. Paul's in the Ulster Club Championship tie in Ballyshannon - is the only player from his club in today's starting line-up.

And while he's looking forward to today's league opener, he openly admits that 1996 has been the most demanding years he has encountered since Killybegs won the championship back in 1988.

"It's been hectic. We started training for the club championship back in May after Donegal lost to Cavan, and we were still going into October. I think it's time that the fixtures situation is looked at. Otherwise, Donegal football is going to be the loser," he says.

With so many hard months of training and tough games behind him, Manus has already commenced a "semi-break," and plans to train very little between now and Christmas.

"Regardless of what you're involved in, you need to take time out. To have the appetite back for the championship next year, it's important to take a break," he stresses.

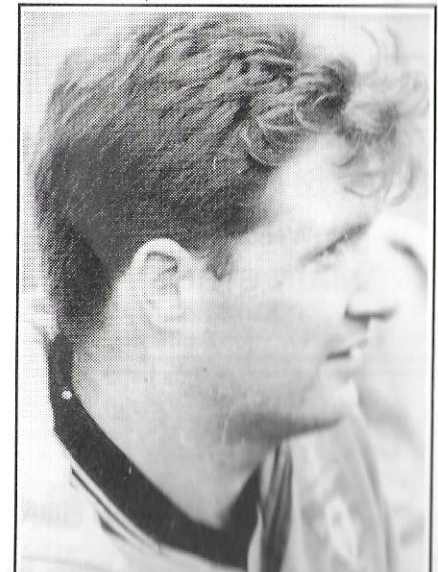

"In the end, a season without some sort of break is senseless," he adds.

The free-scoring forward, whose contribution of nine points in the All-

Ireland final of 1992 will never be forgotten, maintains that league games should go ahead during the summer.

"Unless the senior team reaches the Ulster Final, I believe that all games should be played. Players need games to keep them sharp, and if the league programme was kept at the start of the season, I don't think there would be such a pile up at this time of year," he states.

According to the 30 year old, some of the players from 1992 are still suffering from burn-out. While the same success has not been achieved, their schedule, if anything, has become even more demanding.

Manus Boyle who backs County Chairman, Danny McNamee's comments.
