Word from the Manager

First of all let me thank everyone for the enormous goodwill shown to myself, Dave, Paul and Paddy since taking the reins in early November. I am well aware that a pat on the back is only a foot away from a kick in the arse, probably closer when you are someone my size but I would ask everyone to be patient over the coming months as many young players are been given jerseys for the first time.

As we travelled around the county having trials, trying to unearth some hidden treasures, it was great to see the passion and interest for football.

Today's game against Donegal will no doubt bring back many happy memories for their supporters, ten years on from their All-Ireland win. We have a lot of Donegal people doing great work in the clubs around our county and this will be one occasion where they will not cheer for their adopted city Dublin.

Finally, we team management and players are not taking sides on the SRC proposals but we know there are strong opinions against any splitting of Dublin. We would ask supporters to remember our only cause today is to try and win two league points and any protests should not impact on that aim.

COMAN GOGGINS

Name: Coman Goggins

Date of Birth: 07/09/76

Height: 6ft

Weight: 13st 4lbs

Club: Ballinteer St Johns.

Greatest honour: Playing for Dublin all other awards are bonuses.

Biggest disappointment: Losing in two Leinster finals.

Most difficult opponent: Johnny Crowley.

Favourite current player: Ciaran Whelan.

Hero of past: Brian Mullins.

Villain of past: Johnny Crowley - for scoring those two goals in Semple Stadium. I'm too young to remember Seamus Aldridge awarding that free to Mikey Sheehy in '78!

Superstitions: Maybe wear the same pair of shorts for matches but they'd be washed!

Phobias/Recurring nightmare: No fears. Recurring nightmare is of those Leinster finals particularly losing to Kildare in 2000.

Favourite film: Gerry Maguire (seeing as I'm not allowed pick Shawshank Redemption!).

Favourite actress: Gwyneth Paltrow.

Favourite actor: Morgan Freeman.

Last book read: Tony Adams' autobiography - "Addicted".

First Dublin match that made big impact: Has to be any one of the four Dublin v Meath games in '91.

Quicksilver or Who wants to be a Millionaire: I'd put Bunny Carr ahead of Gaybo so Quicksilver.

Phone a friend - who on Dubs panel do you call: Ian Robertson.

Phone a friend - who on panel do you definitely not call on the 'dog and bone': Declan Darcy (only joking, of course).

Ambition for 2002: To win at least a Leinster SFC title.

View on North-South Dublin split: Fail to see benefits of that proposal in the SRC report.

All-Ireland Football Final 1992

Donegal 0 - 18

Dublin 0 - 14

2 mins - Vinnie Murphy proved his prowess in the air by outfielding Matt Gallagher but he was fouled, and from the resultant free, Charlie Redmond opened the scoring with a Dublin point.

5 - Niall Guiden placed Mick Galvin who tapped over a Dublin point from 20 yards.

8 - Declan Bonner hoisted a free from the Hogan Stand side 55 yards out James McHugh collected and veered right before shaking the crossbar with a good attempt. Martin McHugh took the rebound and had no difficulty in popping over Donegal's opening point.

11 - Murphy moved to the right to take a 45yards pinpoint pass from Jack Sheedy who made his angle to kick Dublin's third point. It all looked quite simple for Dublin at this stage.

12 - Donal Reid started another threatening move from half back. Manus Boyle moved for the pass and switched inside to James McHugh who took his point well.

16 - Keith Barr targeted Murphy on the edge of the square with a midfield free. The full forward outfetched Gallagher again and although he fumbled was able to feed back to the unmarked Sheedy who tapped over the bar from 20 yards.

18 - James McHugh was brought down 30 yards out in the shadow of Hill 16. Not the best place for an opposition free, but Declan Bonner managed to calmly left-foot a point for Donegal.

19 - Bonner started the most penetrating Donegal move so far when he linked up with midfielder Brian Murray out on the right. The switch pass to Tony Boyle created a huge gap in the Dublin defence and the ball was transferred across the face of the goal to Manus Boyle. The goal was on but somehow the Killybegs man miskicked over the bar to level the scores at 0-4 each.

20 - Sheedy promptly replied with a point to restore Dublin's lead.

21 - Another quicksilver shortpassing Donegal move, initiated by the roaming Bonner, was carried on by Molloy and rounded off by Martin McHugh.

22 - Martin Gavigan made a timely interception to start another Donegal attack. Martin McHugh was available for the pass and he sent brother James away with Bonner coming in on the end of the move to point a huge score.

24 - Manus Boyle pointed another Donegal free from 35 yards after Tony Boyle was brought down.

25 - Tony Boyle and Manus Boyle combined cleverly on the left for Tony to take a good point from 30 yards.

26 - Dessie Farrell fielded well but missed out on a goal chance and had to be content with a point instead.

31 - Brian Murray found Manus Boyle with a well measured free and from close range the left corner forward pointed.

33 - There was an indication of some disenchantment from the Hill when Redmond's pointed free from close range free drew a meagre response.

34 - Martin McHugh kicked a Donegal point despite being under great pressure from a group of Dublin defenders.

37 - Galvin kicked a Dublin point from 22 yards after a Murphy cross was knocked back from a group of players.

38 - Manus Boyle pointed another Donegal free.

44 - Manus Boyle added to his points tally from a free 35 yards out.

45 - Substitute Barry Cunningham, who had replaced the injured Brian Murray, was fouled after taking the ball from Martin McHugh and Manus Boyle kicked yet another Donegal point from a free.

49 - Guiden was first to react to a Paul Clarke free and kicked a much needed Dublin point.

50 - Bonner booted a huge left footed point from the sideline 25 yards out.

59 - Bonner laid on the pass for Manus Boyle to kick high and over for his seventh point.

60 - Paul Clarke pointed a '50' for Dublin.

61 - Sheedy and Tommy Carr combined well on the right before setting up Murphy for a Dublin point.

62 - Guiden gave Eamonn Heery a good inside pass from 30 yards and the attacking back kicked a Dublin point.

63 - Tony Boyle was fouled after yet another sharp Donegal movement and Manus Boyle kicked a close-range free over the bar.

65 - Galvin was fouled and Redmond pointed the close-range free.

66 - Manus Boyle beat Mick Deegan before kicking another Donegal point, his ninth.

67 - After a despairing short goal attempt by Murphy was deflected for a '50'. Clarke obliged with what proved to be Dublin's last point.

69 - Loose midfield marking on John O'Leary's kickout saw Donegal captain Anthony Molloy standing all alone to gain possession. He placed Bonner and from an angle on the right the player booted the insurance point.

Celebrating 100 Years 1902 - 2002

FRESH START FOR PRIMARY PROMOTION

The first home game for Dublin footballers in Parnell Park signals a resumption of interest in Gaelic games in Dublin's primary schools. It's a fresh start too for Cumann na mBunscol's innovative "Follow The Dubs" scheme which this season will be sponsored by Church and General, who are celebrating 100 years in business in 2002.

A full-colour poster highlighting all Dublin's home and away fixtures in the current Allianz football and hurling leagues is currently being distributed to 300 Dublin schools. Hundreds of primary school children, accompanied by a parent or guardian, are guests of Dublin County Board today as part of the scheme. This season we have asked our teachers to target families who might not be regular attenders at our games. We welcome them particularly today and hope they will return to Parnell Park in the near future.

A further element of the promotion will create great drama and excitement in schools on Monday morning when results of "Guess the Score" competitions will be revealed and attractive Dublin merchandise given as prizes. This simple idea has been a real winner in creating awareness and pride in the capital's senior football and hurling teams.

Our two mascots today are Deaglan Breathnach and Grainne O Carroll. What an honour it is for them to meet the Dublin captain, Paul Curran, and have their photograph taken with him. It's something they will remember all their lives as they "Follow the Dubs".

AN RAIBH FHIOS AGAT ?

* Alan Brogan, who lines out for the Dubs today, attended Laurel Lodge N.S. and captained a Dublin Cumann na mBunscol selection that played Belfast in Croke Park. This annual exchange with the Northern capital goes back to the 1930's. Liam Whelan, of Busby Babes fame, Kevin Armstrong, the great Antrim footballer and Shane Ryan are others to have played in either Croke Park or Casement Park in this unique long -running series.

* League debutant, David Henry, is a past pupil of St.Paul's N.S in Ayrfield. His father, Gene, wore the Offaly county senior hurling jersey and his younger brother, Conor, is a rising Cumann na mBunscol hurling star, who played in last summer's I.N.T.O.-G.A.A. Mini- Sevens in Croke Park. He also won the Church and General - G.A.A. Museum Interactive Hurling Challenge some months ago. To further strengthen David and Conor's G.A.A. pedigree, their mother's sister is married to former Offaly All-Ireland medal winner, Brendan Lowry.

* Cumann na mBunscol, Ath Cliath, won three national awards in last season's Roadstone National Awards scheme. 5,000 and three magnificent trophies were collected by the Dubs at an awards banquet in Clontarf Castle Hotel in November. The categories won by the Dublin unit were : Best Fixtures and Information Booklet, Best Hurling Initiatives and Best Public Relations. There are Cumann na mBunscol units in all 32 counties.
