FÁILTE CHUIG

FOIREANN NA GAILLIMHE

Caithfimid uilig, i rith na bliana úra seo, sár iarracht a dhéanamh caighdeán ár gcluichí a chuir chun cinn agus iad a fheabhsú ag gach leibheál laistigh den chontae. Is féidir na haidhmeanna seo a thabhairt chun críche, ach ní féidir ach clú agus cáil an am atá thart a thabhairt chun foirfeachta má tá an chinnteacht dearfa againn sin a dhéanamh.

Today we extend a céad míle fáilte to All-Ireland Championions Galway. We congratulate them on their tremendous success in 2001. We also welcome their team management, officials and supporters.

Last year's corresponding game in Tuam was one of the most exciting in the League with Galway coming from behind to grab a draw in injury time. We look forward to another classic today and I appeal to all our supporters to get behind Mickey Moran and our team and give them our full vocal support to match their commitment and dedication on the pitch.

I wish to thank the Seán Mac Cumhaill's club for all their help and co-operation and providing the programmes.

Wishing all members of Cumann Lúthchleas Gael a sporting and exciting 2002.

Tá ár rath féin ag brath orainn féin. Tá an mhian againn an toradh sin a bhaint amach. Seo linn ar aghaidh

THE LAST MEETING

Galway 0-12 Donegal 0-12

Donegal and Galway last met in the National League on 12th November, 2000, in Tuam. Donegal left the Galway football capital with a point, but it should have been two, as Galway stole a share of the spoils with two injury time points. Before a small crowd, both sides served up a good 70 minutes football, with Donegal fortunate to be a point ahead at the break, but in the second half they did more than enough to have taken both points.

The story was different in the first half when Galway (P. Joyce and D. Savage in particular), threatened to tear the Donegal defence apart and but for two fantastic interventions by Noel McGinley, Donegal might well have been at least two goals in arrears at the break. However, a lack of belief, plus a kamikaze attacking approach in the final ten minutes gave Galway the openings they needed to poach a point that should not have been available. Over the 70 minutes all of Donegal's points came from play, with impressive performances from John McCafferty and Andrew Gallagher in the corners.

Donegal got off to a perfect start with McCafferty showing a clean pair of heels to Thomas Meehan after two minutes and slotting over from a difficult angle. Galway were in front by the 7th minute through Pádraig Joyce and John Donnellan. Barry Monaghan equalised for Donegal, before Noel McGinley made a great block on Seán óg de Paor's goal-bound effort. John Donnellan again restored the Galway lead with a free and Noel McGinley again made a fantastic block, this time on Derek Savage. Galway had another goal chance in the 26th minute when a long ball from Joyce saw Savage nudge McGinley out of the way and set up a chance for John Donnellan but with Tony Blake out to "mark" him. Donnellan took his point. Two points down, Donegal and Adrian Sweeney took the game by the scruff of the neck, hitting two brilliant points to equalise and right on half time Michael Hegarty broke forward to leave Donegal ahead at the break 0-5 to 0-4.

Galway were back on terms early in the second half through Kenny Naughton, but Donegal hit back through James Gallagher and Andrew Gallagher. John Donnellan from a free, pulled a point back while at the other end, James Gallagher had what seemed like a great score waved wide. Andrew Gallagher and Seán óg de Paor traded scores before Donegal opened up a three point gap for the first time with scores from Sweeney and McCafferty. Pádraig Joyce pointed a 20m free after Ray Sweeney picked off the ground, before McCafferty again opened the gap to three.

However, Galway were winning frees in scorable positions and Joyce cancelled that score, before McCafferty got Donegal's last point in the 61st minute. John Donnellan won and converted a free with two minutes of normal time remaining, as Galway piled on the pressure. In injury time, Joyce pointed another free, before Kenny Naughton hoisted the equaliser

Galway: P. Lally, T. Meehan, R. Fahy, C. Collins, M. Colleran, T. Joyce, S. óg de Paor (0-1), J. Bergin, F. Gavin, K. Naughton (0-2), L. Colleran, N. Meehan, D. Savage, P. Joyce (0-4, 3 frees), J. Donnellan (0-5, 3 frees). Subs: D. O'Brien, T. Corton.

Donegal: T. Blake, E. Doherty, M. Crossan, N. McGinley, N. Hegarty, R. Sweeney, J. Scanlon, J. Gildea, B. Monaghan (0-1), J. Gallagher (0-1), M. Hegarty, M. Doherty, J. McCafferty (0-4), A. Sweeney (0-3), A. Gallagher (0-2). Sub: B. Roper.

Tá Na Poinní Seo Tábhachtach Inniu

le SEAMUS de FAOITE

peil mhaith a imirt nuair atá gá leis. Caithfidh muid a bheith ar ár n-airdeall ó thús go direadh an chluich. Tá éacht mhór déanta ag foireann Mhícheál Ó Móráin le dhá bhliain agus scoith obair déanta aige. Nuair a chuimhnighim go bhfuil ceithre cheann do na cluichí ó seo go deireadh na Sraithe ar shiúil as baile, caithfear an cluiche seo a imirt le dea mhian agus le barr lasrach agus mór rún buaith ina gcróithe.

Bíodh sin mar atá, tháinig athrú ar rudaí agus tá spiorad na coimhlinte ina lán contaethe anois, go háirithe ionainn féin. Níl eagla níos mo orainn i dTír Chonaill roimh chontaethe eile. Níl eagla a mbáis ar ár mbuachaillí calma féin roimh imreoirí ar bith. Táimidinne ar chéim uachtarach den dréimire faoi láthair agus ansin a bheidh muid ar fea fada an lá.

Tagann imreoirí na Gaillimhe ar aistear againn inniu agus súil acu le bua, ach níl an réamhaisnéis acu. Cuireann muid fáilte agus céad rompu agus roimh a n-oifigigh chomh maith. agus abran muid leo go, léir - tá sibh imeasc cairde, chuig contae a bhfuil ard mheas aici ar a cluichí agus ar a cultúir. Tá súil againn go mbainfidh sibh taitneamh as bhur gcuart.

Sílím go mbeidh cluiche breá againn agus go mbeidh an bhua ag na Connallaigh ag deireadh an lae.

Nuair a ghlacfaidh imreoirí na Gaillimhe a n-áit ar phaire Sheáin Mhic Cumhaill inniu, taimid cinnte go ndéanfaidh cúig cloigne déag atá ullamh agus réidh, a ndícheall log a chuir i bpeil Thír Chonaill. Tá gach réasún acu seo a dhéanamh nuair a smaoineann siad ar choimlintí roimh seo, go speisialta sa tsraith le gairid.

Admháim go raibh ár sáith do thuas seal agus thíos seal againne le tamall. Bhí am ann agus b'iad Gaillimh na máistirí agus bhí radharc amháin arna dathanna marún agus bán go leor, fiú leis an Ríocht neartmhar a scanrú. Déarfa go raibh siad faoi thionchar ag Naomh Nioclás ar a laghad suas go dtí an t-am a raibh an bhua acu san pheil anuraidh.

Tubaiste a bheadh ann dúinne i nDún na nGall gan an t-urraim atá tuillte ag an fhoireann seo a thabhairt dóibh. Tá siad láidir agus daingean. Tá siad abálta

Galway's Last Visit To Donegal

The Donegal senior footballers were taught a lesson in the art of translating possession into scores on Galway's last visit to Mac Cumhaill Park, in November, 1999. Declan Bonner's side hit 22 wides to Galway's 4, over the 70 minutes. In the first half, Donegal had kicked 12 wides, while Galway were off the target just once. Little wonder that the tribesmen went in at half time leading 0-4 to 0-3.

Two fairly easy chances were missed early on by Brendan Devenney and James Gallagher and this was to set the tone for the afternoon. Adrian Sweeney did open the scoring from play on four minutes, but this was followed by misses from Michael Hegarty and Mark Crossan. Donegal's supremacy at this stage underlined by the fact that Crossan was in a scoring position.

John Donnellan got Galway's opener on 8 minutes, before Pádraig Joyce escaped the marking of Ray Sweeney, to point against the run of play. James Gallagher and John Gildea restored the Donegal lead with two quick fire points. Gildea's point from all of 50m was without doubt the score of the game.

However, Galway took the initiative and Paul Clancy levelled the game after combining with Donnellan midway through the half. Scoring was an elusive art, with both defences on top at this stage. Niall Finnegan rounded Damien Diver to score the last point of the half, as Donegal laid siege to the Galway goal, but could not find the scores for the remainder of the half. Jim McGuinness and John Gildea both had two wides each and Devenney slipped as he tried to pounce on a loose ball for an almost certain goal. Galway upped the tempo in the second half and by the end of the third quarter, had stretched their lead to five points, with scores from P. Joyce, D. Meehan and J. Donnellan.

Tony Blake made a point blank save from Donnellan to keep Donegal hopes alive, but four more unanswered points had the visitors on the road to victory. Twenty-five minutes had passed before substitute John McCafferty had raised Donegal's first white flag of the second half, with all of Donegal's four second half scores coming from Substitutes. Eamonn Sweeney scored from midfield and Martin Caulfield added two more points to put a slightly better gloss on the score sheet,

Galway: P. Lally, R. Fahy, K. Donnellan, T. Meehan (0-2), J. Divilly, E. Daly, J. Bergin, S. Ó Domhnaill, P. Clancy (0-2), K. Comer, L. Colleran, J. Donnellan (0-3), P. Joyce (0-4, 2 frees), N. Finnegan (0-2). Subs: M. Colleran, S. Mitchell (0-1), R. Doyle.

Donegal: T. Blake, D. Diver, R. Sweeney, M. Crossan, N. McCreddie, O. Reid, N. McGinley, M. Coll, J. McGuinness, M. Hegarty, J. Gildea (0-1), S. Carr, B. Devenney, A. Sweeney (0-1), J. Gallagher (0-1). Subs: B. McLaughlin, M. Caulfield (0-2), E. Sweeney (0-1), J. McCafferty (0-1).
