Fáilte

Mar cathaoirleach ar Coiste Chontae Dhún na nGall CLG, is cúis mhór áthais dom fáilte a fhearadh romhaidh go léir cuig Páirc Shéain MhicChumhaill i gcoir na cluichí ceannais sóisear A agus Sóisear B na Chontae 2006

Today's two pairings, which are the first adult football finals of the year have the makings of two very fine games of football. It's not long since Na Rossa were competing in the senior football championship, I am aware of the hard work they have put in this year (as indeed have all today's finalists) in an attempt to turn around the club's fortunes after a disappointing year last year.

To that end, Declan Bonner, who will wear a bainisteoir bib when the senior final comes around on October 15th, continues to serve his club and lines out at full-forward for Na Rossa today.

The other set of ribbons on the McCloskey Perpetual Cup are those of Naomh Bríd. The proud south Donegal club were last champions in 2003. Today's final is a landmark for their club as they face into an adult final for the first time without any members of the famous Gallagher clan. Matt, Declan, Dermot and Pauric (RIP) have all served Naomh Bríd with distinction. Today, it's the turn of the next generation to show their worth.

The Junior B final sees Aodh Ruadh compete in their third final in as many years, testament to the work being done in bringing young players forward and keeping many would be peripheral players in the game. Glenfin will be anxious for silverware, I know they have also prepared very well.

My hope is for a favourable day for football, two sporting showpieces to that effect, I wish all four participating sides the best of luck.

My thanks to our sponsors and our groundstaff without whom today's final would not be possible.

By way of conclusion, may I wish our two young referees well, both of whom are part of the Ulster young referees academy and who face into the first of many football finals in their respective careers.

Today's Referee's

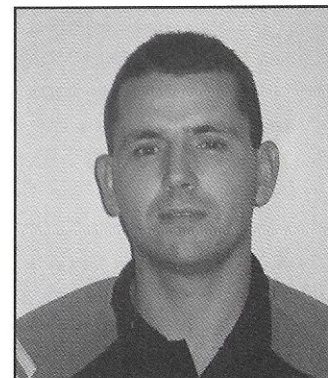

Junior "A" referee: Shaun McLaughlin (Malin)

Linesmen: Seamus Bradley, Paddy McKeever

Shaun takes charge of his first adult county football final today. Aged 31, Shaun took up refereeing at senior level four years ago.

He played with his native Malin picking up a junior championship medal in 1998 when he lined out at corner back. Currently living in Malin, Shaun is married to Mandy, the couple have three daughters. His family are keen supporters, not just of Shaun, but of GAA in Malin, Inishowen and Donegal.

Shaun is hoping the weather will stay fine this afternoon to allow for a free-flowing entertaining spectacle. His ambitions, having completed the Ulster young referee's academy based in Cookstown next year, is to progress to the inter-county stage.

The Malin clubman would like to see more young referees take up the whistle and is immensely looking forward to today's showpiece.

Junior "B" referee: Hugo Wallace (Burt)

Linesmen: Tony Gallagher, Hugh McGarvey

Today's Junior "B" referee is Hugo Wallace from the Burt club. Aged 29, Hugo is one of a new generation of referees making significant strides in Donegal GAA. He has been refereeing at senior level for seven years now. He has all hurling medals from u-12 to senior with his native club and took charge of the junior hurling finals in 2003 and 2004 in Donegal.

Hugo's father, Austin was also a referee.

His three brothers have all represented Donegal in hurling with Andrew having also played for Ulster. Married to Rosemary and living in Newtowncunningham, Hugo hopes to take charge of a county senior football final at some stage in his career. He concedes that refereeing a hurling final may be a more difficult proposition in the near future!

A word from the captain - Na Rossa

I would like to start by saying how proud I am leading this team into the final as captain. This is my thirteenth season playing for Na Rossa. I have won three Division Two medals, intermediate medals and I have also played in the Senior Championship for four years.

I owe a lot to my family especially my father who got me interested in football from a very early age. I would also like to mention the three Bonner brothers, Sean, Michael and Declan, they always try to push you that extra step, nowadays you need that extra step to have success playing football. Myself and a few of the more senior players got together at the beginning of the year for a chat about the year we had last year and the year ahead. After such a disappointing year last year we knew we needed to give this one a massive effort.

We also knew that we needed the right man to lead us in the right direction, so we were glad at our AGM when Sean Bonner took on the job. I would also like to thank the 26 players on our panel who gave us a massive effort all year.

As for the final itself, we have already played Naomh Brid twice this year, they are a very good team and we know we will be up against it. The last time Na Rossa won the Junior Championship I was the mascot for the team so it would make me very proud to lift the same cup I sat in 25 years ago.

Trevor Melly
Na Rossa Captain.

A word from the manager- Na Rossa.

2005 will go down as one of the worst years in Na Rossa history. The loss of key players, lack of commitment and very little training combined to see us finish bottom of division two.

Taking on job as manager this year I had mixed feelings. We had a lot of rebuilding to do to restore some pride in our club. At a players meeting in January we decided to give it 100% commitment with our main aims being promotion to Division Two and Junior Championship success. Training commenced in mid-January with good turnouts and after a number of victories in challenge matches, confidence began to return. We enjoyed success in our first five league matches which was followed by defeat at the hands of our final opponents, Naomh Brid.

We put that defeat behind us to win our next six league games before suffering defeat to a determined Muff side. At the moment we top division three and promotion to division two is still on track. The championship draw paired us with Muff in a very difficult preliminary round. We managed to win both home and away but not without a few scares.

Letterkenny Gaels were next up and once again we came out on top. Neighbours Naomh Mhuire provided the opposition in the semi-final and we came through this nail-biting contest by one point showing that we had stomach for fight. Looking forward to the final, I foresee another hard contest against a strong Naomh Brid side. Diligent preparation for this game is essential and with a large squad of 26 players vying for 15 places it will give myself and my selectors Michael Bonner and John Mc Monagle plenty headaches in the coming days.

Sean Bonner,
Na Rossa Manager

A word from the manager - Naomh Bríd

I have been involved with Naomh Bríd since it was founded in 1976 and the present team remind me of some of our best ever teams in 1986 & 1987. We first won the Junior A Championship 20 years ago and the last time was 3 years ago. We defeated Lifford in the first round and Robert Emmets in a very close contest in MacCumhaill Park in the semi-final. We played Na Rossa twice in the league winning one and losing the other.

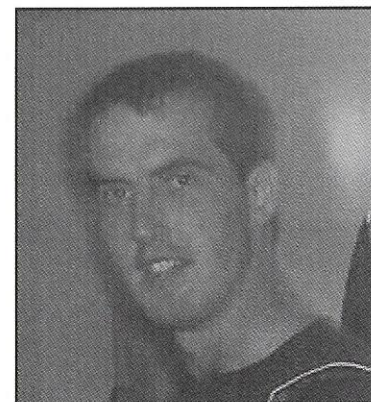

I think today's final will be a thriller. Our team have a good blend of youth and experience, with an average age of 22. Naomh Bríd are hungry for success and it has been a long journey since February when we started training with a lot of hard work being put in by the lads. They are at their peak now and want success. Donal Martin & Sean Timoney have been exceptional this year and have the boys well prepared. Many thanks to our supporters who travelled today and indeed throughout the year. I am looking forward to a good final and victory for Naomh Bríd.

A word from the captain - Naomh Bríd

As captain of the Naomh Bríd Senior Team for 2006, it is a great privilege to be the leader of a great bunch of lads who are back in another county final as well as being still in contention for promotion in the league. We started off a very good year with a lot of young players coming through from minors which has strengthened our senior panel. Our aim at the start of the year was to gain promotion and get a good run in the championship. Being in the final now, makes the hard training worthwhile. Many thanks on behalf of my team mates to our manager Michael and coaches, Sean, Donal and Eamon, and the club committee. We wouldn't have made it this far today without their commitment to the club. I am looking forward to a good final against Na Rossa and hopefully winning the game as well as building a good future for our young players breaking through to senior level.

Naomh Bríd - 20 years on...

It has been 20 years since Naomh Bríd, captained by John Joe Travers, first won the Junior County Championship beating Robert Emmets in the final. In the years that followed it proved to be a starting point with the club going on to win intermediate and compete in the senior league.

20 years on this new young Naomh Bríd team, captained by Dermot Langan, is following in the footsteps of the legendary team of old. The future looks bright.

This year will be the first year Naomh Bríd will field a team without a member of the legendary Gallagher clan on it. However their influence is still apparent with their heavy involvement with the underage teams. Dermot managed the seniors to Junior A Championship success in 2003 with his brother Matt (former All-Star and All Ireland medal winner) playing a key role on the team, while Declan also managed a team that reached an intermediate semi-final in 2001. Their father Tommy Gallagher was one of the founding members of the Naomh Bríd Club and along with his wife Mary Jo, have made a marvellous contribution to the club.

As with all rural clubs, you will always find a few sets of brothers on a team. David, Pete and Clint Walsh from Ballintra are key players on this team, along with the three Rooney brothers, Pádraig, Sean & Conal bringing a mix of strength, understanding and colour to the squad. Another family connection is the manager, Michael Gallagher, along with his son Ronan and nephew John. John Gallagher in his position as goalkeeper, has proved to be one of the best shot stoppers around and his kickouts will be a vital part of today's game.

The backroom team this year, as with every other year, has been exceptional. The sideline team, first aiders, committee and field committee have played a vital part in getting the team to where they are today. Many thanks as always to our sponsors Robert Roberts.

The club has recently setup their website <http://www.naomhbrid.net>. The website will provide people both at home and abroad with up to date information and pictures of the clubs current up and coming talent. If anybody has any photos or information from past teams, please submit it to the website.

Aodh Ruadh

The 2006 season commenced under a new management team of Gerry McManus (Trainer), Colman Kerr, Paddy Kelly and Kenneth Monaghan. We lost some members of last year's panel who moved up to a higher standard of football. However, we were delighted to welcome some new faces to the squad. After the disappointment of losing the final last year, training started in February. Our first league games began in April and despite some good performances we did not qualify for the play-off stages but got a chance to cast an eye over all members of the squad. This group of players have worked very hard during the season and we have come through a number of very difficult games to reach the final today. This has been a testament to the dedication of all players, with consistently large turn-outs at training. Great credit is also due to Gerry McManus for the intensity and variety of training sessions during the year. We realise that Glenfin have a very experienced team. We were fortunate to beat them by one point in the championship semi-final last year but revenge was had when we were well beaten by them in our last league meeting a month later. We expect a very difficult game but are looking forward to our third final in a row.
