Latest news from Donegal Gaa

Copies of the Donegal GAA yearbook are now available from Clubs and newsagents countywide. Priced at EUR10, the yearbook contains a comprehensive review of Donegal GAA activity in 2006. It is printed in full colour with a large and varied selection of snaps from the best photographers in the region which capture the highs and lows of the year gone by.

The February Meeting of County Committee will take place on Monday 5th February @ 8.30 pm. in the Sean McCumhaill Centre Ballybofey.

Closing date for return of nominations forms for the position of County Youth Officer is this Friday 2nd February, forms can be returned to the County Secretary Crona Regan via E.mail, Fax or Post.

Donegal have qualified to play either Monaghan or Tyrone in the Final of the Gaelic Life sponsored Dr McKenna Cup. The final is due to be played on 17th February at a time and venue to be decided

The Draws for the various Championships in the county for 2007 will take place live on Raido na Gaeltachta on Saturday 10th February, time of draw to be confirmed. Some Clubs have yet to forward the name of the person or persons whom they are nominating as their Club refereee for the coming year. These names must be with the County Secretary not later than Friday 2nd February 2007.

The Annual Fixtures Forum for Clubs will take place in Jackson's Hotel Ballybofey, on Thursday 1st March @ 8.00pm.

Clubs are requested to ensure that they have activated their E-Mail address, for in future all fixtures will be sent by this method.

The Annual General Meeting of Referees including new Referee's who have recently completed the training course is due to take place, on Thursday 8th February, @ 8.30pm. in the Finn Valley Centre Stranorlar, further information is available from Frankie Doherty on 087 6775403.

Two Donegal Referee's will be in action this weekend. On Saturday Seamus McGonigle will travel to Pairc Tailteann Navan to take charge of the Division 2B N.F.L. game between Meath and Cavan, while on Sunday Jimmy White will referee the Division 1B N.F.L. game Louth against Down in Drogheda.

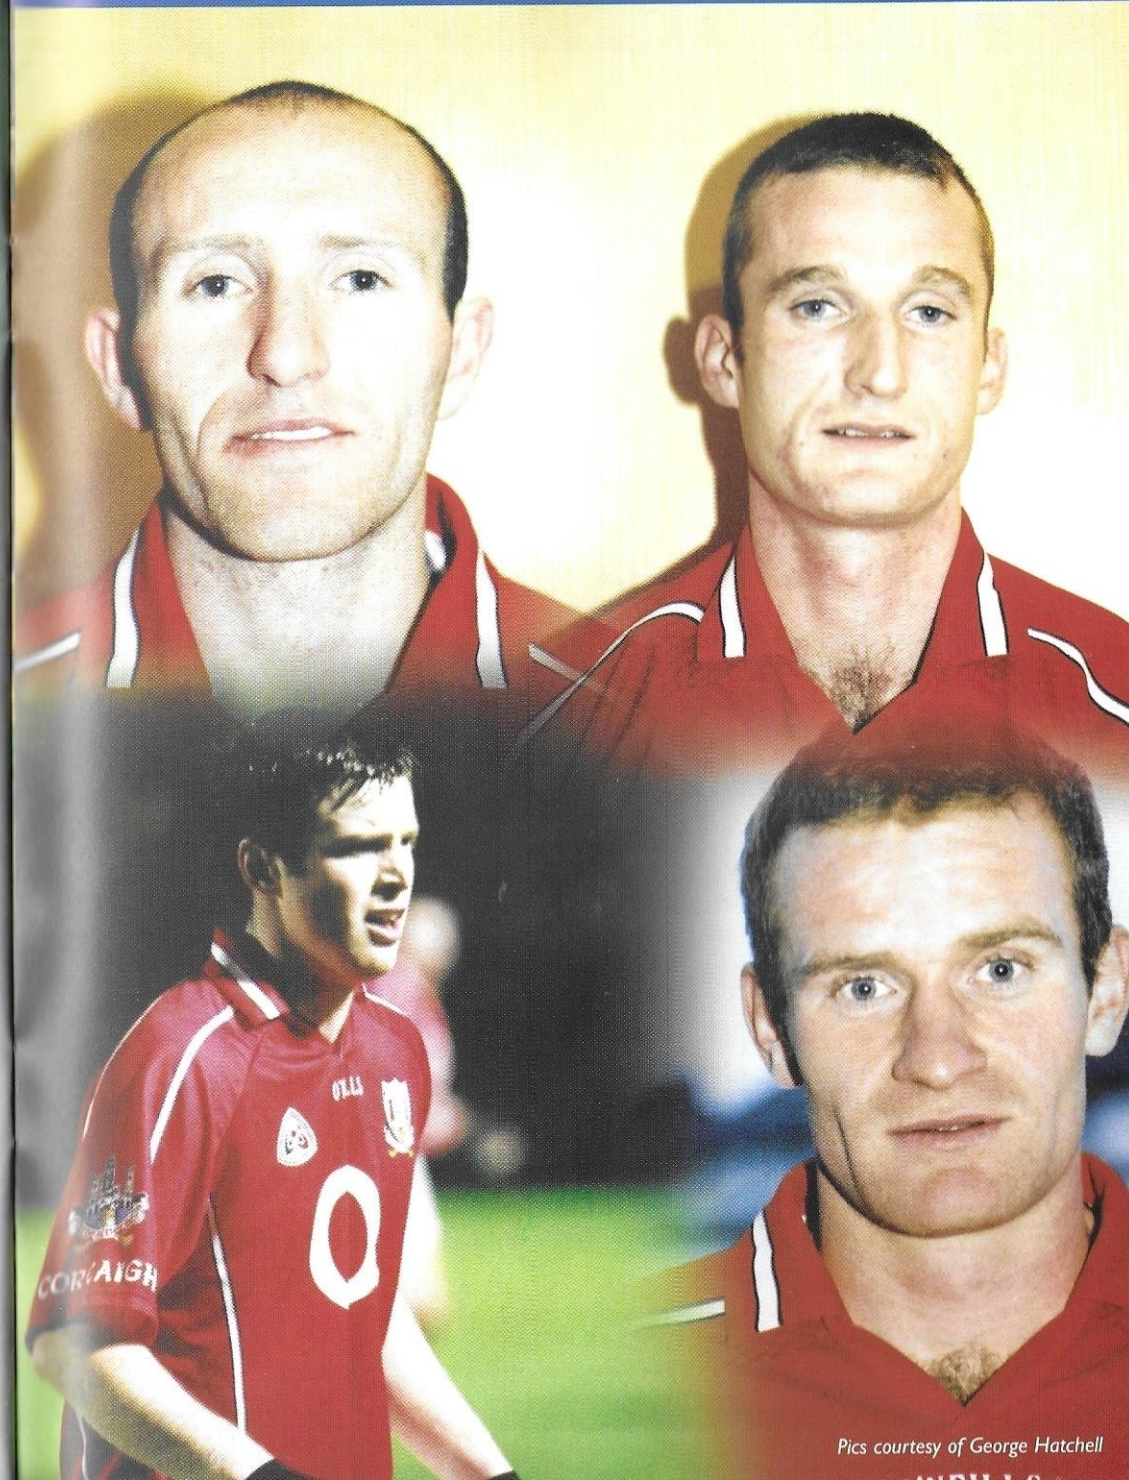

Clubs are asked to return a copy of their Secretary's Report, Treasurer's Financial Report and their Club Officer Form for 2007, to Runai na Chondae, as soon as their Annual General Meeting is held.

The All-Ireland finals of Scór na nOg are due to take place in Athlone on Saturday 17th February. Donegal will be represented by Glenswilly in the Novelty act and Carndonagh's Kerri Stamp will participate in the Solo singing section.

Annual Banquet

The Donegal G.A.A. Annual Banquet will take place in the Abbey Hotel Donegal Town on Saturday 24th February. Among the awards being presented is a special presentation to the members of the 1956 County Minor team to mark the 50th anniversary of becoming the first team from the County to win the Ulster Minor Football Championship.

Classy Corkery returns to Cork fold to boost Tompkins' hand

Match report from last meeting 22nd March 2003.
CORK 3-8 DONEGAL 0-10

LARRY TOMPKINS' Rebels protected their unbeaten record on home turf when for the third time in this year's Allianz Football League Division 1A they emerged victorious at Páirc Uí Rinn on Saturday night under floodlights.

Kerry and Galway had already fallen at the splendid former Flower Lodge venue and Cork played some excellent controlled football after weathering an early Donegal onslaught to collect both league points. Cork were well worth their seven point victory at the finish and were also boosted by the return of Colin Corkery following his All-Ireland Club winning heroics with Nemo Rangers on St Patrick's Day.

The Rebels resumed the second half with Derek Kavanagh in for the injured Eoin Sexton. The Nemo Rangers' man partnered Nicholas Murphy at midfield, with Graham Canty dropping back to the pivotal position. Donegal lost the chance of a goal minutes into the second half, when the ball broke to the unmarked Brendan Devanney, but he was denied by an excellent save by Cork goalkeeper Kevin O'Dwyer. From there on things got worse for Donegal and when Jim O'Donoghue was pulled back going through, Brendan Jer O'Sullivan slotted home the resultant penalty, sending goalkeeper Gerry McGill the wrong way.

Cork tightened their grip further with an O'Sullivan point and they were three clear goals after 47 minutes.

Tompkins introduced three members of the victorious Nemo team - Corkery, Alan Cronin and Maurice McCarthy - to the delight of the home crowd, and it took Corkery 10 minutes to get on the scoresheet.

When he finally did manage to score it was worth the wait as he pointed superbly from out near the touchline, a score reminiscent of the winning-point he scored in All-Ireland Club decider victory over Crossmolina. Cork remained firmly in control for the remainder of the match and it was fitting that Corkery should have the final say when he punched James O'Shea's cross to the net to prove, if proof was needed, just how valuable a forward he is to the Cork attack.

A Special Night also for Brian

Less than twenty-four hours after the final game of his brilliant career Brian Corcoran was presented with the 'Distinguished Career Award' and received a standing ovation when he made his way to the stage to accept the award from GAA President Nickey Brennan.

Brian said "it's strange having just finished yesterday (Sunday) to be getting such an award but I am delighted to accept it and thank 96/103 FM and the Rochestown Park Hotel for the honour, I have had a wonderful career and would like to thank everyone for their help in particular my club Erin's Own who I owe a great deal to."

Ever the gentleman Brian wished all the winners the best of luck and had special words for the Camogie and Ladies Football teams in their bid for the three in a row next season, he also thanked John

Allen for his help and wished Gerald Mc Carthy all the best for the coming years and I have no doubt that the talent his there to bring further honours to Cork. Brian finished his few words with a rousing 'Corcaigh Abu' which was well received by the packed room.

Elaine, Brian's wife, his sister Ann, his uncle DD Sheehan and many of his Erin's Own club mates including Chairman Paddy Twomey, were present along with his Cork team mates Peter Kelly and Tom Kenny, while football All-Star Nicholas Murphy was also in attendance
