SPECTATORS...

when our team comes onto the pitch our behaviour often becomes irrational.

Referee abuse & bad language in the stands while standing beside young children is unacceptable.

You may disagree with the referee or why a player is on the pitch, but engage our brains before our mouths...

Tom Daly, Uachtarán, Comhairle Uladh

The Dr. McKenna Cup competition starts us off in a new GAA season. Since the re-commencement of this competition in 2003, as one of the Ulster Council's centenary year events, it has found a new place in the GAA calendar.

One of the most important and successful features of the Dr. McKenna Cup since its re-commencement has been the participation of the Third Level Colleges, which provides an outlet for almost 100 young players, to experience competition at senior inter-county level. Involving the Third Level colleges has added a new dimension to the Competition and I believe, that we have now satisfactorily resolved the issues which arose in the past in relation to player eligibility and panels.

As our programme of floodlighting of the premier inter-county venues in Ulster comes close to completion, the strategic value of this initiative is increasingly seen with the flexibility that it provides, particularly where there is limited time to play competitions. In the future we will require more and more venues with floodlit capacity and I have no doubt that the GAA at all levels throughout Ulster will respond well to this developmental need as our units see the additional options and greater flexibility that having facilities such as this provides to them.

I wish to publicly acknowledge the commercial sponsorship support provided to the Dr. McKenna Cup Competition by Gaelic Life, which adds to the profile of the competition as does the involvement of TG4 in televising some of the games.

Finally, thanks to our fellow voluntary workers who help to make the running of the games as smooth as possible through the commitment of their time as stewards, gatemen, event coordinators and match officials.

Tá súil agam go mbainfidh gach éinne sult agus taitneamh as an gComorthas i mbliana.

Maurice Kennedy, Editor, Gaelic Life

Gaelic Life is now an established brand across Ulster and is proud to be the only weekly publication in the province dedicated exclusively to Gaelic games coverage. Launched just over a year ago, Gaelic Life continues to publish up to 48 pages every Friday, and is packed with the latest GAA news and views.

The 2008 Dr McKenna Cup competition has given Gaelic Life the opportunity to confirm its commitment to Ulster GAA through commercial sponsorship. Our team is delighted to once again be associated with the 'Gaelic Life Dr. McKenna Cup' and we believe that Gaelic Life's involvement last year brought the publicity and standing of the competition to a new level.

It is our intention to push the competition to a greater level this year and working closely with the Ulster Council we hope to help make the competition a more family friendly environment and have targeted specific matches with family entertainment.

Gaelic Life is part of the NWIPP stable which is based in Omagh and family owned. The NWIPP Group has a wealth of experience in newspaper publishing and titles include the Donegal News (Monday and Friday), the Tyrone Herald (Monday), Strabane Chronicle and Ulster Herald (Thursday) as well as the Fermanagh Herald (Wednesday). Overall, NWIPP titles sell over 60,000 papers every week in counties Tyrone, Fermanagh and Donegal while expanding throughout the rest of Ulster with Gaelic Life.

For 107 years, our newspapers have recorded all aspects of the GAA in their respective communities and through the Gaelic Life Dr McKenna Cup, we are proud to continue our promotion of Gaelic games in Ulster.

The Origins of the McKenna Cup Competition

When Dr. Patrick McKenna, Bishop of Clogher presented the McKenna cup to the Ulster Council in 1925, he was one of only a small group willing at that time, to be publicly associated with the GAA. Ireland in the 1920's was slowly emerging from war, unrest and change.

When the Ulster Council sought donors for trophies there wasn't a queue to their door with offers. From 1923 the council were actively looking for a donor for their senior championship and in 1925 the treasurer of the council proposed the establishment of a second competition to prepare teams for the championship.

Two loyal GAA stalwarts came to the council's rescue in 1925. JF O'Hanlon, owner Anglo-Celt newspaper presented a trophy to BC Fay, secretary of the Council. It was decided to use the trophy for the Ulster senior championship and it was first presented to Cavan who won the 1925 Ulster championship. Treasurer O'Duffy was successful in securing a trophy from the bishop of Clogher and the new cup was presented to Council in 1925 although it was not until 1927 that the competition got underway.

Patrick McKenna was born in the North Monaghan parish of Errigal Truagh in 1869. A pupil at St Macartans and Maynooth, he was ordained in 1894. He taught English at Maynooth and was appointed curate of Currin parish in 1896. He spent a period teaching in St Ciarán's Kilkenny before returning to Clogher as curate of Enniskillen. He was appointed professor of Theology at Maynooth in 1904 and in 1909 he was consecrated Bishop of Clogher.

The bishop provided a glowing reference for Eoin O'Duffy to help him secure the position of assistant-surveyor in the Clones/Cootehill district. Later in 1918 O Duffy was arrested in Clones and Bishop McKenna issued a lengthy statement condemning the arrest. When the Bishop McKenna presented the cup to Ulster Council in 1925 the council recognised an old friend.

The regulations for the new McKenna cup were drawn up at Ulster convention in 1926 and the competition commenced in 1927. The first final was played in Clones on May 8, 1927 with Monaghan defeating Donegal 2-7 to 2-3.

The first and only trophy presented to the late Cormac McAnallen as captain of the Tyrone senior team was the McKenna cup. It was fitting that Miceal Greenan as Uachtaran Comhairle Uladh presented that original McKenna cup as a permanent memento to the McAnallen family. It resides now with pride in Brantry. The stories of our past heroes informs all our futures.
