President's Foreword

The 'Gaelic Life' Dr McKenna Cup starts us off in a new GAA season. Since the re-commencement of this competition in 2003, as one of the Ulster Council's centenary year events, it has found a new place in the GAA calendar.

One of the most important and successful features of the Dr McKenna Cup since its re-commencement has been the participation of the Third Level Colleges, which provides an outlet for almost 100 young players, to experience competition at senior inter-county level. Involving the Third Level Colleges has added a new dimension to the competition and thankfully we have satisfactorily resolved the issues which arose in the past in relation to player eligibility and panels. The co-operation of County Boards and their team managers with this process is greatly appreciated.

As our programme of floodlighting of the premier inter-county venues in Ulster comes close to completion, the strategic value of this initiative is increasingly seen with the flexibility that it provides, particularly where there is limited time to play competitions. In the future, we will require more and more venues with floodlit capacity and I have no doubt that the GAA at all levels throughout Ulster will respond well to this developmental need as our units see the additional options and greater flexibility that having facilities such as this provides to them. It is our intention to complete the floodlighting in St Tiernach's Park, Clones in 2009 which will see all 9 Ulster counties with their primary ground floodlit to television standard.

I wish to publicly acknowledge the commercial sponsorship support provided to the Dr McKenna Cup competition by Gaelic Life, which adds to the profile of the competition as does the involvement of TG4 in televising some of the games.

Finally, thanks to our fellow voluntary workers who help to make the running of the games as smooth as possible through the commitment of their time as stewards, gatemen, event co-ordinators and match officials.

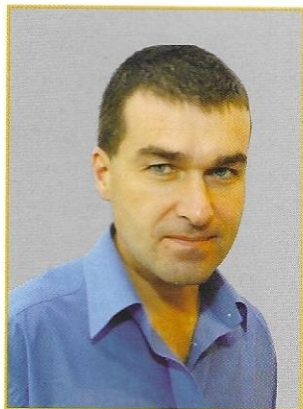

Tá súil agam go mbainfidh gach éinne sult agus taitneamh as an gComortas i mbliana.

It's maybe not the most fashionable time of year for football but make no mistake - the Gaelic Life Dr McKenna Cup is eagerly awaited by players, managers and fans right across Ulster. All the more so this year with the Croke Park ban on pre-Christmas training making the McKenna Cup the first opportunity for county teams to get together since last summer.

Whatever the line-outs in the coming weeks you can be sure there will be no shortage of talent on show: We have All-Ireland champions Tyrone, National Football League champions Derry, Ulster champions Armagh, Sigerson champions UUJ, not forgetting the Tommy Murphy Cup winners Antrim and last year's McKenna Cup winners Down.

Let's not kid ourselves - many of the players who will be lighting up the championship later in the year will be watching from the stands, but that's part of the intrigue of the McKenna Cup, it's an opportunity to get a good look at what's coming through and see who's likely to make the cut come summer.

This is the third year Gaelic Life has sponsored the Dr McKenna Cup and we are proud to be associated with a competition that is an intrinsic part of the GAA calendar here in Ulster.

All-Ireland champions Tyrone will hardly be at full strength, but they will want to lay down an early marker that they mean to pick up where they left off. League champions Derry, under new manager Damien Cassidy, will be closely scrutinised, as will an Armagh side that is scheduled to go head to head with Tyrone in the championship.

Monaghan and Fermanagh are two sides that will be looking to build on recent progress, while last year's McKenna Cup winners Down, now entering their third year under Ross Carr, know that they are at a crossroads. Throw in new managers in Antrim, Cavan and Donegal and we're in for an absorbing few weeks.

Special mention must be made of the college sides competing in the Gaelic Life Dr McKenna Cup - not so long ago we wondered would they struggle against senior intercounty sides. After four years of varsity involvement they have proven to be a huge addition to the competition and with UUJ, Queen's and St Mary's fine-tuning things for the forthcoming Sigerson campaign, the students will be well up for it.

Whatever the outcome we're in for a month of good, honest endeavour and, hopefully, a fitting start to a new year of Ulster dominance in gaelic football.
