The late Michael Oliver McIntyre

Michael Oliver was one of the best known GAA personalities in Donegal and further afield. His playing career stretched over four decades from winning a McLarnon title with St. Eunan's College in the '60s; winning a Senior Championship with Naomh Columba in 1978 as captain and some twelve years later he was still on board when the club won their second title.

He was a fearless half-back for Donegal and was to the fore when the south-west of the county became the stronghold of Gaelic Games. After his playing career, Michael Oliver became a leader off the field as manager and mentor of club and county teams from minor to senior. He was also an efficient administrator.
