FOCAL ÓN CHATHAOIRLEACH

Ta Deireadh seachtaine gnothach romhainn le cluichi mora indiadh a cheile, ar an Satharn agus ar an Domhnach.

De Satharn, tiocfaidh iomanaithe Ceatharlach chugainn agus, De Domhnaigh, beidh peileadoiri Dhun na nGall mar chuairoteoiri i bPairc Chiosoig. Mar Chathaoirleach Coiste Iarmhí, fearaim failte roimh cach....roimh gach a ghlacfaidh pairt 'sna cluichi, gach a bhaineann leo agus roimh lucht leanuna na bhfoireann uilig. Ta me dochasach go mbainfidh gach duine agaibh taitneamh as na cluichi. It's a busy weekend for Cusack Park. Carlow hurlers, fresh from their great win over Antrim, find themselves around mid-way on the points table and anxious to consolidate their position with a win over Westmeath who have just a single point to show for their efforts. A home win today would, indeed, be welcome and following a good display against Wexford, last Sunday, it is a distinct possibility. Carlow will be keen to avenge the Kehoe Cup set-back of a couple of months ago when Westmeath beat them, 0-16 to 0-9, in the final and a result that will count for nothing in the context of today's game.

On Sunday we have Donegal footballers as visitors. The last time they were with us was two years ago and they beat us, 1-13 to 1-8. They have already collected three league points but will be anxious to move further away from the relegation zone with another win over the men in maroon.

Westmeath, unfortunately, occupy the basement of the points table and, with just two games to play, relegation is looming large. But all is not lost and a win over Donegal would be a massive step towards salvation.

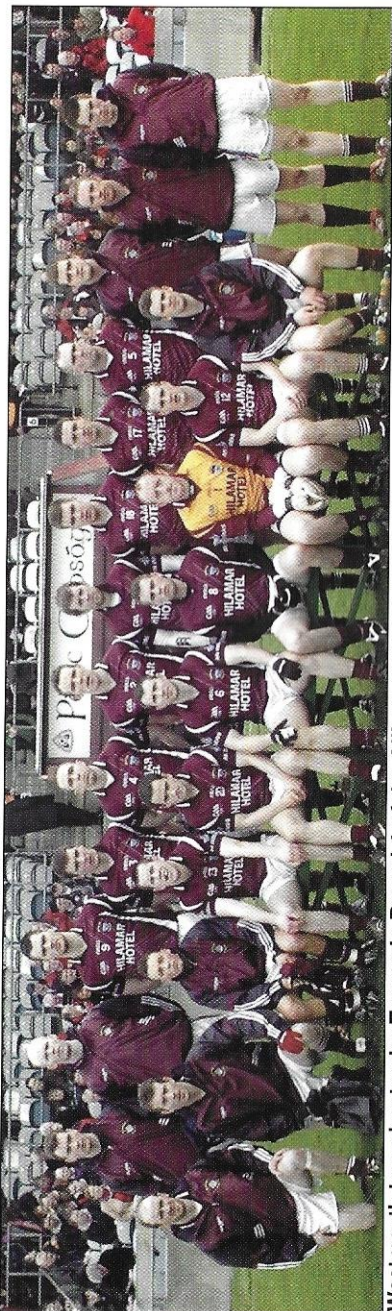

Irrespective of how we finish up in the league we can look back on some promising displays that give hope for the forthcoming championship and by mid June when we face either Longford or Wicklow we should be firing on all cylinders and confident of doing well. We certainly hope so. To all who come to Cusack Park over the two days I extend a hearty cead mile failte. To players, officials, helpers, supporters and our two referees, Tony Carroll from Offaly (hurling) and Aidan Mangan from Kerry (football) and their officials may they have good games.

Tomás Ó Fearghail
Cathaoirleach CLG Iarmhí.

 Le gunna scréach faoi lámhach na bpiléar,
 Seo libh canaig Amhrán na bhFiann.
