It gives me great pleasure on behalf of the county board to welcome you all here to day to the highlight of our year the minor championship finals 1 and 2.

Contesting the Div 2 final are two clubs Dungloe and Convoy that have put in a huge effort at underage as past few years and today their efforts are rewarded with a county final appearance.

The Division 1 contest is between two clubs Cloughaneely and Kilcar that have a proud record at underage level and are no strangers to McCool park on county final day.

I would like to thank both boards for the huge effort they have put in this year to ensure the smooth running of our underage games.

Finally good luck to all the teams today and may football be the winner.

Focail An Eagarthoir

Welcome to Mc Cumball Park for the Finals of the Minor Division 1 and 2 Football Championship.

We have 4 great team here today that will battle it out no doubt to the end. This is a great achievement for Kilcar team as it is their first year up in Division 1; it seems all the hard work payed off. As for the Dungloe team they struggle all year but still manage to pull all the stops out.

This is a great year for both Cloughaneely and St Marys Convoy as they are also in the Minor league Final. That is a great achievement in its self.

I wish both of luck and may the best team won. I also wish to thank the match officials well and thank all who are helping on the day.

A Special thanks to Declan Cunningham and Michael Mc Shane for contributed to this programme and to the 4 Clubs. Thanks to all the Advertisers that came on board. Thanks also to the Peter Campbell Donegal Democrat for helping out.

1985 Donegal County Minor Championship final Killybegs hold on to retain title

Killybegs 2-6

Aodh Ruadh 1-8

The Donegal Democrat report of the 1985 Donegal minor championship final records that Killybegs retained their minor crown but only after Aodh Ruadh squandered many chances in both halves.

The final was played in Fr. Tierney Park, Ballyshannon, and Killybegs led at half-time by 2-2 to 1-4, thanks to two goals in quick succession midway through the half from Conal 'Flipper' Gallagher.

Aodh Ruadh had plenty of possession but were unable to take advantage while Killybegs (who were also the reigning Ulster Minor club champions) used their possession to the maximum.

Aodh Ruadh got the best possible start with a goal from Thomas O'Brien inside 30 seconds and they were denied a second goal when O'Brien came in along the endline to cross for Eunan Walsh to finish to the net but O'Brien was adjudged to have stepped over the endline.

Martin Murchan got Killybegs on the scoreboard while John Forkin replied for Aodh Ruadh. But then came the double salvo from Conal Gallagher. Points from Diarmaid Keon and Val Murray left just a point in it at the break.

The second half saw Killybegs retain their advantage but as in the first half, Aodh Ruadh had plenty of chances but just couldn't avail of them and the Fishermen held out for the one point win.

Both sides finished with 14 men with Martin Murchan and Philip McCarthy being sent off.

Scorers: Killybegs: Conal Gallagher 2-0; Conor White 0-2; Martin Murchan, Ian Cunningham, Declan McMenamin, Barry Cunningham 0-1 each. Aodh Ruadh: Thomas O'Brien 1-0; Val Murray 0-3; Peter Duffy, Noel Hoey, Eunan Walsh, Diarmaid Keon, John Forkin 0-1 each.

Killybegs: John McGuinness; Declan McMenamin, Paul Carbury, Gavin O'Rourke; Francis Murray, Denis Carbury, Arthur Meehan; Barry Cunningham, John Ban Gallagher; William McCallig, John Cunningham, Martin Murchan; Conal Gallagher, Conor White, Ian Cunningham. Sub., Stephen Cunningham for McCallig.

Aodh Ruadh: Mark Crawford; Donagh Keon, Pat McGovern, Billy Cleary; Malachy Cullen, Diarmaid Keon, Philip McCarthy; Mark Cleary, Noel Hoey; Thomas O'Brien, John Forkin, Peter Duffy; Val Murray, Eunan Walsh, Patrick McGroarty. Sub., Peter McKenna for McGroarty.

Did you Know?

The name Cloich Cheann Fhaola (also written Cloich Chionnaola, meaning "the Stone of Faoil's Head") comes from a story which tells of the killing of Faoil. The story says that Balor of the Evil Eye beheaded Faoil on a rock because Faoil stole the Cow of Plenty from Balor and brought it back to the mainland from Tory

The name Falcarragh (lit. An (the) Fál (Wall) Carrach (Stone), Stone Wall / Boundary) has been used since 1850, ascribed so by O' Donovan as he believed 'Na Crois Bhealaí', the Cross Roads, was too common in Ireland to allow distinction. Na Crois Bhealaí is still used by native speakers when referring to the town. On some maps it shows up as 'Crossroads' deriving from its Irish language name Na Croisbhealaí but older maps refer to it as Robinson's Town, but its now listed as An Fál Carrach. An Fál Carrach, the main commercial town between Letterkenny and Dungloe was known in former times both as Crossroads and as Robinson's Town. An Fál Carrach, the official name, originally referred to a little hamlet south east of the present town, at the foot of Falcarragh hill - but gradually houses were built at the crossroads, mainly for the workers and trades people employed on the Olphert Estate in Ballyconnell.

The first recorded reference to Falcarragh appears in a report written by William Wilson, who was the Protestant Bishop's steward responsible for the collection of tithes to support the Protestant clergy. He, apparently, received a hostile reception on arrival in Cloughaneely (parish) according to his account to the bishop: According to my intention I went to Cloughaneely and on Monday about 12 o'clock arrived at a place called Falcarrow in your Lordship's See (about five miles distant from Dunfanaghy) where I then, pursuant to advertisement, proposed holding the Court as I twice before had, but was immediately on my arrival surrounded by upwards of 150 to 300 men who had assembled merely for the purpose of preventing me from holding any Court and threatened my life if I would.

From 1622 to 1921, the Olpherts were the main landlords in the district, Sir John Olphert being the last Olphert landlord, who died in 1917.

The tallest Celtic cross in Ireland is located near Falcarragh. Falcarragh railway station opened on 9 March 1903, closed for passenger traffic on 3 June 1940 and finally closed altogether on 6 January 1947

Centre of Excellence

The need for a centre of excellence and the finding of a suitable location has engaged the GAA in Donegal for a number of years. Once a positive decision was taken to develop a centre the search then began to find a suitable site. In 2008 a suitable 26 acres site was located near Convoy. Allan & Curran Architects Ltd, Donegal Town, were engaged to seek planning and permission was granted in 2010 for five pitches, handball court and hurling wall and clubhouse.

A contract was awarded in July to Curran Contracts, Armagh, to develop two sand carpeted floodlit pitches with other essential site works and planning requirements. The contractors were quickly on site and achieved a lot of work in short period of time until the intervention of the 'monsoon period'. The vast majority of the heavy earth moving cut & fill has been completed and the bases for the two pitches are ready and pitch drainage will commence once weather conditions are suitable. Pitches will be ready for use by the Summer of 2012.

During the works three bronze age cooking sites (500 to 1500 B.C.) were unearthed and this created some excitement in the area. The Department of the Environment gave permission to preserve the sites in situ and this has been done.

The next stage in the development will be erection of clubhouse etc to be ready for use by the Summer of 2012. As funding allows later stages will include a full size 3 g floodlit pitch, two more sand carpeted pitches, hurling wall and handball court.

Minor success vital for both clubs

Frank Craig Donegal Post

The importance of a minor football title to any club can't be underestimated, particularly in these trying times as parishes struggle to fend off the threat of emigration and unemployment for youngsters on the verge of adulthood. Regardless of the result today, both these sides will be doing their utmost to retain the services of all the players involved – as both clubs look to unearth as many potential senior stars as possible.

Today's combatants are here on merit and an 'A' title at this grade will be a huge reward for the obvious hard graft that has gone on in the last number of weeks.

Cloughaneely caused somewhat of a surprise when they disposed of a highly fancied Naomh Conaill last time out. Despite trailing at one stage, the Falcarragh men produced an amazing turnaround to prevail by two in the end. Sean McGarvey accounted for 1-3 in that contest and the Cloughaneely faithful will hope he brings his shooting boots again this afternoon. The side's strength and depth was very evident when two of their substitutions, John Fitzgerald (0-1) and Martin Ferry (1-1) got on the score-sheet also.

The Cloughaneely side that started last time out was: Sean McCafferty; Cian McFadden; Ciaran Boyce; Antoin Brady; Shane Gallagher; Kevin McFadden; Adam Lafferty; Michael McClafferty; Sean McGarvey (1-3); Paul Sweeney; Stephen Rodden (0-1); Brian Geeney; Michael McClafferty; John McGarvey (0-2); John Harley (1-0). Subs: John Fitzgerald (1-0) for Geeney, Martin Ferry (1-1) for M McClafferty.

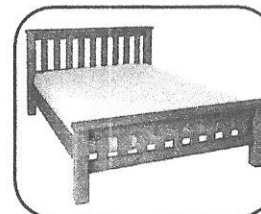

Kilcar's success probably wasn't as unexpected considering the exploits of Carrick VS last season, and most of today's squad has experience of the big occasion, which could serve them well, if-and-when the chips are really down.

The side has a great balance throughout and possesses an impressive work rate with the likes of Pauric Carr, Ryan McHugh and Mathew McClean capable of causing real damage. They also have in their ranks, in Patrick McBrearty, a player capable of feats that would grace any senior football arena. The Kilcar side that contested their semi final win over MacCumhail's was: Kevin Boyle; Christopher Cunningham, Pauric Carr, Ciaran O'Donnell; Aidan McGinley, Ryan McHugh, Thomas Burke; David Gillespie, Conal Gilmore; Owen McHugh (0-1), Patrick McBrearty (2-5), Ryan McGinley; Matthew McClean (0-2), Dermot McGinley (0-1), Kevin Gallagher (0-1). Sub: Colm Molloy for Gallagher.

A word from the Cill Chartha Captain, Dermot McGinley

Ar son C.L.G. Cill Chartha agus foireann mionuir Cill Chartha ba mhaith liom faille mor a chur lena lucht leanunach Cill Chartha agus Chloich Cheann Fhailia ata anseo inniu ar la tabhachtadh fa choinne spoir i nDun na nGall.

For ourselves even reaching the County Final is a massive achievement and hopefully both sets of players can serve up a game worthy of this occasion. The success of Naomh Conaill has proven the importance of this grade as it was their County Minor wins which provided the basis for their successful senior team.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our Club Minor Board, supporters and our management team led by John McNulty who deserve massive credit in bringing us this far. They have shown great determination and motivation throughout the year and that has now filtered down to us as a group of players.

Going on form its very hard to see a clear favourite between the teams as both have come through tough semi-finals which means that this has the makings of a good County final. Finally I would like to wish Cloughaneely the best of luck and lets hope after a good hard tough County final the better team will emerge victorious.

A Word From the Cill Chartha Manager, John Mc Nulty

It is a great honour for me to be manager of C.L.G Cill Chartha minor team on this county final day.

Since the start of the year the players have shown great commitment and dedication and I am delighted that they have reached the final today.

I would like to thank my management team of Aiden, Malachy and Kevin and our physio Sinead for all their work this year, also to the club and our supporters for all your support and hopefully we will do you proud on this the biggest day of the Championship year.

I would like to wish all players and management and supporters of both teams all the best in todays final ,and hopefully we can serve up a great game of football.

Cloughaneely GAA

Captain Cloughaneely GAA, Caomhán Mac Phaidín

Ba mhaith liom fáilte mhór a chuir roimh anseo inniú ag an chluiche tabhachtach seo.

Tá Bród iontach ormsa a bheith mar chaptáin ar fhoireann Cloughaneely GAA mar tá imreoirí den scoith againn a d'obair go cruai i rith na bliana.

On behalf of C.L.G Cloughaneely GAA I would like to give a warm welcome to the Kíscar team, management, and supporters. I am very proud and honoured to captain this team as there are a lot of good players in the team. At the start of the season we never thought that we would be in this position, but after beating Millford over two games who are a strong team our confidence grew.

We then progressed further beating Gweedore, and Mc Cumhalls in the northern final. Our next challenge was to meet a strong N.Conail team. It took us some time to get going in this match and it was only in the second half that we showed the quality of our side. We know Kíscar will give us a tough battle today, but hopefully we will give it our best shot.

Bainisteoir Cloughaneely GAA, Seán Seosamh Mac Iomhair

Ba mhaith liom fáilte a chuir roimhe achán nduine anseo inniú go háitithe muintir Cloughaneely GAA. Is rud é gur turas fada é an chluiche ceannais a bhaint amach don Chéad uair. Thosaigh muid ag treonail i mí Feabhre thíos ag an halla. Caithfidh mé rá gur bh foireann iad a bhí furast oibriú leo. Tá meascán mhaith den fhoireann a bhí againn anuraidh agus imreoirí úra a tháinig isteach i mblana. Bhí cluiche ar dóigh idir muid féin agus Naomh Conail sa chluiche leath cheannais, agus bhí linn ar an lá. Is rud é go bhfuil muid ag imirt foireann iontach láidir i gCill Chartha.

Tá Seosamh Mac Gairbheith, Mairtín O Dugáin agus mé féin mar foireann bhainisteoireach ar na míon le dhá bhliain anuas. Is iontach an obair atá déanta ag an bheirt acu thar an am sin, óiche indiaidh óiche. Le críochnú ba mhaith liom mó bhúiochas a thabhairt do na tuismitheoirí agus lucht tacaíochta a lean an fhoireann i rith na bliana. Ádh mhór agus gach rath inniú.

Naomh Mhuire, Conmhaigh

Message from St Marys captain Brendan Bonner

On behalf of the St Marys minor team of 2010 I would like to welcome both sets of supporters to this county minor championship final.

I am honoured to be captain of this group of players who have basically all been together since we were U12s. We would like to be the first team to take home the minor championship to our club. I ask all our supporters to get behind us today.

On behalf of the team I would like to thank the two Liam's and Oliver for all the effort and time that they have put in with us.

Let's hope it's a good final and best of luck to the Dungloe team. May the best team on the day win.

Message from St Marys manager Oliver Prunty

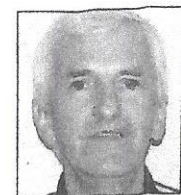

It's a great honour for me to be manager of this St Marys minor team in this 2010 minor championship final.

We don't often get to this stage and we would dearly love to win it for our supporters who I know will turn out in big numbers to support us in a very positive manner today.

The reasons that we here today is down to the dedicated and hard work that has been put in by this very talented group of players. I would like to take to take this opportunity to thank our large number of underage coaches who have done tremendous work with this team and other teams down through the years. Let's hope your hard work bears fruit today.

To our main sponsor Kelly Scaffolding and all our other sponsors, on behalf of the team thank you. On a personal note I would like to thank Liam O Keefe and Liam Mc Conalogue for their tireless work in helping to prepare this team all year. It has been a very enjoyable season so far and I know this panel of players will be doing their very best to win today.

Finally I would like to wish the Dungloe team the best of luck in today's Final and hope that this will be a memorable and enjoyable occasion for us all.
