Presidents Foreword

Fáilte romhaibh go léir chuig cluiche cheannais faoi 21 sa pheil. Comórtas brea a bhí againn arís i mbliana agus táim ag súil go mór le cluiche bríomhar idir na foirne. Míle buíochas leis na peileadóirí uilig a ghlac páirt sa chomórtas agus leis na contaetha as a gcomhoibriú.

Good luck tonight to Cavan and Donegal. They have come to this final following a highly competitive competition. May the best team win and may we applaud the efforts of all players. We also acknowledge the contribution of all coaches and team mentors at club, school and county level who have developed these players to compete to the best of their ability. Whichever team emerges as Ulster champions will carry all our support to the All-Ireland Semi Final.

Thanks to all for their co-operation in this competition, for provision of grounds, teams, stewards and all arrangements. On behalf of our Council I thank our referees, linesmen, umpires and match officials.

I commend the continued support of Cadbury's for their sponsorship of this fantastic competition. Míle buíochas to our supporters. You have supported these Wednesday night fixtures and hope that you continue to enjoy our games programme throughout the coming year. Thanks for continuing to supporting our games.

I look forward to a great 2013 Ulster Under 21 Football Final and a fabulous summer on the GAA fields of play. Nothing Beats Being Here!!

Ulster GAA have agreed to support the Make Life Your Legacy campaign established by Joe Brolly and Shane Finnegan. This campaign aims to ensure that a soft opt out system for organ donation is introduced right across the island of Ireland. This means that everyone will be an automatic donor unless they choose to opt out. However, in the event of a persons death, their family will still have final consent. Joe's act of bravery to help a fellow GAA man was without doubt a generous and altruistic gesture and as Uachtaran CLG, Liam O'Neill has already alluded to, the GAA is proud of both Joe and Shane for not only their actions but ongoing work.

Beir bua,

M Mac Aibhne

Sponsors Foreword

A Word from our Sponsor

On behalf of Cadbury Ireland I would like to welcome you here today to Brewster Park and thank you for your continued support of the Cadbury Football U21 All-Ireland Championship.

The Cadbury U21 Football Championship has become an integral part of the GAA calendar and we are absolutely delighted to sponsor such a great competition. This is our 9th year as sponsor and each year it continues to grow.

We have had excellent provincial Championships to date and have seen some fantastic matches around the county. Cavan are through to their fourth successive Ulster final after a convincing win over Down in the semi-finals while Donegal crept past Derry in their exciting semi-final match to keep their hopes alive.

This year we will once again be looking for our Cadbury Hero of the Future. The Hero of the Future Awards is an initiative which began in 2006 to highlight the skill and commitment of U21 footballers and no doubt our judges, Kildare Senior Footballer Dermot Earley, former Dublin Manager Paul Caffrey and TG4 journalist Micheal Ó Domhnaill will be keeping a close eye on this game.

I'd like to thank all the fans once again for coming out here today to show their support and for those who'd like to follow the Cadbury U21 Football Championship on Facebook go to

Head to Head

The U21 Captains

Feargal Flanagan

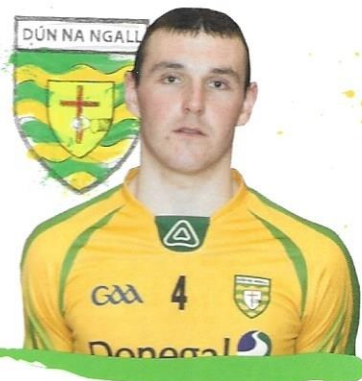

Firstly, as one of the many leaders on this Cavan team it is a great honour to be representing them as captain. It is with great humility and pride that I wear this honour just as I know that it is with supreme pride and honour that my team-mates and I wear the Cavan jersey.

On behalf of the team I would like to give special thanks to our manager, Peter Reilly, his selectors; Joe McCarthy, Ronan Carolan, Peter Donnelly and team co-ordinator Ciaran Fitzpatrick as well as the rest of the back room team.

On behalf of every player on this Cavan panel I would like to pay very special thanks to each and every person who has shaped or influenced our football careers, from club managers, school coaches and our parents.

I would also like to thank Kingspan for their continuous and solid support of Cavan football, the Chairman Tom Reilly, not just for his support which is constant, his encouragement which is unwavering, but for his vision and wisdom in putting in place the structures that have allowed Cavan Under 21's to develop as a family over the last few years.

This Cavan team is a group of committed, hardworking players that represent Cavan and we do so with pride in our crest. To those of you in the stands wearing the Cavan crest, please continue to be our 16th player. Please continue to lend that support. Finally, we would like to congratulate Donegal on reaching the Ulster Final and hope that we can produce a final of the quality to match the occasion.

Kevin McFadden

It is a great honour for me this evening to lead Donegal into the final of the 2013 Cadburys Ulster U21 Football Championship. The task facing us today is a huge one against the reigning champions.

They have been the dominant force in this competition in recent seasons and along with Tyrone were many people's favourites to win it outright again. But finals are finals and anything can happen and having beaten two very good sides in Tyrone and Derry to get here our lads are not just coming here to make up the numbers.

From my own perspective I would like to thank the medical staff, the conditioning coaches, the county board, our sponsors Donegal Creameries, and the many clubs who have given up their facilities so freely this past few months.

A word of thanks to the backroom team, especially Maxi who is the main driving force behind this project and also Francie, who has put a very tough time behind him to come in and make an invaluable contribution to this project. Without the help and guidance of these two men we would not be here this evening.

Finally to the players for all the effort and commitment they have shown up to this point. A lot of miles have been clocked up by a lot of people and many sacrifices made to get us this far and I truly hope they get their just deserts and that Ulster Championship medal.

Head to Head

The U21 Managers

Peter Reilly was part of the Cavan team that last collected an Ulster Senior title in 1997. Maxi Curran was part of the Donegal senior management who collected Sam Maguire last year. We get the thoughts of both men.

Peter Reilly

I would like to welcome you all here this evening to Brewster Park Enniskillen for the 2013 Cadburys Ulster Under 21 Football Championship Final. I would like to thank my management team of Joe McCarthy, Ronan Carolan, Ciaran Fitzpatrick and our team trainer Peter Donnelly.

Thanks to Adrian Harrison who has been involved with us for the past number of years. To our medical team including Dr. Philip Carolan and Martin Regan masseur.

To the clubs of Cavan that have released their players to us for training and to the clubs who have facilitated us with their pitches for training I say thanks. Such support plays an important part in the smooth preparation of our county teams.

To our chairman Tom Reilly and the entire Cavan County Board for the help they have given us. To our loyal supporters who have supported us throughout the year I hope we have something to celebrate tonight.

I would like to pay a special word of thanks to this talented group of players who have gave us everything during our tenure. I want to congratulate tonight's opponents Donegal on reaching this Ulster Final and we hope for a good open sporting game tonight.

Maxi Curran

It is a great honour for me this evening to lead Donegal into the Cadburys Ulster U21 Football Championship Final. The very nature of the U21 Championship, one of the last remaining straight knock out competitions left in the G.A.A. makes this a tremendously exciting competition as every game could be your last.

This has been a thoroughly enjoyable trip so far and with the games coming thick and fast. It is a great competition and one that probably won't be fully appreciated until its over.

The task facing us today is a huge one against the reigning champions. They have been the dominant force in this competition in recent seasons and along with Tyrone were many people's favourites to win it outright again. But finals are finals and anything can happen and having beaten two very good sides in Tyrone and Derry to get here our lads are not just coming here to make up the numbers.

A word of thanks also to the backroom team, especially Francie, who has put a very tough time behind him to come in and make an invaluable contribution to this project and without whom we would not be here this evening. And finally to the players for all the effort and commitment they have shown up to this point. I truly hope they get their just deserts and that Ulster Championship medal.

Match Preview

Cavan and Donegal have shared the last three Ulster Under 21 Football titles and tonight that sequence will be extended to a fourth year. Donegal defeated Cavan in the 2010 decider while Cavan claimed the provincial title in both 2011 and 2012 defeating Tyrone in both finals. Tonight, they aim to make that a remarkable trio of consecutive crowns.

In late March, Cavan defeated their old rivals, Monaghan in a pulsating quarter final where their panel strength was clearly illustrated. Connor Madden, Joe Dillon and Alan Graham all came off the bench to make a telling impact in a game that required extra time.

In the other side of the draw, Donegal were tearing the form book apart as they comprehensively defeated Tyrone in Healy Park. Tyrone were the All-Ireland Minor champions in 2010 but much has changed since then. Donegal showed a high level of composure and allied to the well renowned scoring threat of Patrick McBrearty they emerged to the semi final stage with relative ease.

In the semi finals, Cavan had a comfortable victory over Down at the Athletic Grounds. Another five points from the ever reliable Enda O'Reilly proved vital while fellow inside forwards Paul O'Connor and Jack Brady caused problems. They are defensively very strong with Fergal Flanagan, Killian Clarke and Darragh Sexton playing important roles. In the other semi final, Derry and Donegal played out a cracking encounter in Healy Park. Donegal looked to be cruising to victory until a late Derry surge left them hanging on at the final whistle. They are captained by corner back Kevin McFadden and can also look to senior players Martin O'Reilly, Ryan McHugh and Patrick McBrearty for leadership.

Tonight will provide us with another glimpse to the future as Cavan hope to continue their underage resurgence while Donegal will look for a second title in four years. Peter Reilly and Maxi Curran have their teams well prepared and it is poised for another great encounter.

Cavan by two!!
