MICHAEL MURPHY SPORTS & LEISURE

Deireadh Fomhair 23ú agus 24ú

i Páirc Uí Dhomhnaill agus Páirc Sheáin Mhic Chumhail

Clár Óifigiuil - €0:00

County Board Chairperson - Mick McGrath

Ba mhaith liom fáilte a chur romhainn go léir chuig na cluichí leathcheannais i gcrabhadh peile idirmheánach na contae an deireadh seachtaine seo. Tá sé deas go bhfuil deis ag daoine theacht amach ag na cluichí arís agus cé go bhfuil srianta ann go foill is féidir linn taitneamh níos fearr a bhaint as na cluichí seo tríd a bheith i láthair. Ar ndóigh tá sé tábhachtach a chinntiú go gcomhlíonaimid treoirínite maidir leis an bpaindéim.

Dóibh siúd nach dtig leo bheith i bPáirc Sheáin Mhic Cumhaill beidh an chuiche idir Cloich Cheann Fhaola agus Buncranncha a shruathlú beo agus dóibh siúd nach dtig leo bheith i bPáirc Uí Dhomhnaill beidh an cluiche idir An Clochán Liath agus Naomh Columba le feiceál beo ar Donegal GAA TV.

Is cinnte go mbeidh dhá chluiche de ard chaighdeán againn agus guím gach rath ar an ceithre fhoireann atá fágtha sa chraobh.

I welcome all four clubs, their supporters and match officials to this weekend's Michael Murphy Sports Intermediate Championship semi-finals in Páirc Uí Dhomhnaill and Páirc Sheáin Mhic Cumhaill. The prospects are good for two cracking semi-finals between four evenly matched teams, each of whom will have designs on being crowned 2021 Intermediate Champions. Both games are being streamed for supporters in Donegal still nervous of travelling to matches, for Gaels elsewhere in Ireland and supporters across the globe. The links to all the weekend's streams and to the virtual programmes can be found on www.DonegalGAA.ie.

As we move towards the concluding games in our championships we also face into a new phase of Covid-19 regulations in our country. GAA facilities and attendances are heading towards a post-Covid opening, with 100% attendance at this weekend's games, but we must all remain cautious - we still have to protect ourselves and others, particularly with regard to social distancing and mask-wearing. It's only right that I recognise the tremendous efforts by our GAA Clubs and their members in this unprecedented battle. We especially remember all those who passed away on our island during these tough times. Ar dheis Dé go raibh a nAnamnacha.

Intermediate Big Four Provide Juicy Senifinals - Ryan Ferry (Donegal News)

THERE has been much chat this year about the 'big four' in the Senior Football Championship but there is no doubt that four sides have been a step above in the Intermediate Championship as well.

Naomh Columba, Dungloe, Cloughaneely and Bunrana are still standing, and a lively semi-final weekend lies ahead. The meeting of Naomh Columba and Dungloe on Saturday has the makings of a tasty affair.

Naomh Columba have been excellent so far in the championship, winning all their games. They eased Naomh Brid to one side in their quarter-final last week. Aaron Doherty is their star name, but Eric Carr has been impressive while Ryan Gillespie and Lanty Molloy know where the posts are.

Dungloe are also unbeaten in the championship, and they have adapted to life in the Intermediate seamlessly. They got the better of their neighbours Naomh Muire in the Rosses derby last week and that contest was effectively over at half-time. The Curran brothers – Mark, Barry, and Darren – have all been in good form, while Daire Gallagher and Oisín Bonner are talented young forwards.

When these sides met in Division 2 at Pairc na nGael, Dungloe won a tight affair and it's likely to be close again this time out.

Cloughaneely and Bunrana face off on Sunday and that is a repeat of the 2020 semi-final. On that occasion, Cloughaneely prevailed by 1-13 to 0-14.

The Pairc Naomh Fionnan men are aiming to make their third successive Intermediate decider, and they have been in good form since losing their opening championship encounter against Glen. They also got the better of Bunrana at the Scarvey in the group stages so that might provide an edge heading into this week's match.

Blake McGarvey has excelled in his first year out of minor for Cloughaneely while Paul Sweeney is always a handful at full-forward, and Jason McGee will need to have a big game at midfield. Bunrana lost two of their group games but still made it through and then saw off Fanad in a decent quarter-final last week. Oisín Hegarty was superb in that encounter while John Campbell impressed at full-forward and county star Caolan McGonagle got through a mountain of work.

However, they will be concerned about three goal chances they gave up to Gaeil Fhánada in the second half. There is rarely much in it when these teams meet and it would be a surprise if there is more than a score between the sides come the full-time whistle.

All in all, we should be in for an entertaining Michael Murphy Sports and Leisure Intermediate (and Senior) semi-final weekend.
