County Board Chairperson - Mick McGrath

A Chairde, ba mhaith liom fáilte a chur roimh na himreoirí agus foirne bainistíochta chomh maith le na meáin.

As Chairperson of CLG Dhún na nGall I would like to welcome you all to O'Donnell Park Letterkenny for today's game. In particular we express a special welcome to our visitors from CLG Maigh Eo and today's match officials from An Lu, Aontroim agus Doire. Over the last few years, games between today's opposition have been exciting and close encounters, and today's match should produce another close challenge for both teams.

We recognise the increased effort to promote hurling in Donegal and the growth in the numbers playing it. It is encouraging to see a full round of league fixtures in each of the last three weeks and the increased interest across the county. The number of clubs in Donegal participating in our leagues has now entered double digits. The availability of a centralised training facility for county players at the Donegal GAA Centre, regular attendance and structured training has without doubt assisted the improvement that is evident. I would encourage all involved in Donegal Hurling to continue this level of commitment, especially at underage level. Wishing all involved a successful campaign for the rest of the season.

As always, St Eunans' ground staff have Páirc Uí Dhomhnaill in great shape. Maith sibh. Finally, I wish both teams and the match officials, the best of luck and look forward to an exciting and competitive game.

Hurling Board Chairperson - Manus O'Donnell

A Chairde, tá fáilte romhaibh uilig go dtí Pairc Uí Dhomhnaill inniu, tá súil agam go mbeidh cluiche sár mhaith againn.

On behalf of the Donegal Hurling Board, I would like to welcome you all to Letterkenny, today. Once again we are back in Naomh Adhamhnáin's splendid Páirc Uí Dhomhnaill and we welcome the hurlers of Mayo for our first round game in the 2021 Nickey Rackard Cup. Mayo and Donegal are no strangers to each other, having competed in last year's "Final" of the Nickey Rackard Cup and Donegal were also, the victors in the recent Allianz National Hurling League game.

No doubt, today's clash will be a keenly fought contest and we wish all the team and Mickey McCann and his backroom staff every success today. We have all struggled during the present pandemic and it is great to have our County teams playing our games once again and that our Club teams are back in action, with three rounds of the Senior Hurling League played to date.

Following on the success of the Donegal hurlers in 2020, winning the "Double" of the Allianz National Hurling League Division 3A and the Nickey Rackard Cup and retaining our Division 2B status for 2022, the hurlers of Donegal will strive to maintain, their upward progress and claim another victory over their great rivals, 'Mayo'.

Finally, on behalf of the County Hurling Board, I would like to thank the officers of the County Board, for their ongoing support, the officers and members of Naomh Adhamhnáin and the ground staff at Pairc Uí Dhomhnaill, in their preparations of the grounds today.

PROUD SPONSOR OF DONEGAL GAA

Donegal & Mayo renew Nickey Rackard Rilyary (Gerry McLaughlin)

It is the dreaded “C” word and it can catch even the best of teams! For, complacency can have no place in the minds of Donegal’s hurlers as they lock horns with Mayo in the Nickey Rackard Cup in O’Donnell Park, Letterkenny today.

Donegal crucified the Westerners in their last League meeting at this venue on May 9 in one of the most complete displays given by any Donegal hurling team ever.

And they did it without Davin Flynn, one of the most gifted players in the county. But Mayo will be coming to Letterkenny like a wounded animal on two counts. They still remember how a late Donegal goal scoring surge edged them out in a cracking Nickey Rackard Cup final in Croke Park last year. That was a proud day for Tír Conaill who became the only county to win this competition for a third time.

But the biggest motivator will be that hammering they took in early May. It is important to note that Mayo were without their talismanic captain Keith Higgins. The word is that he will be fit to play, and he is the greatest single threat to Donegal.

But the very grounded Mickey McCann will have his homework done as he presides over this exceptionally powerful Donegal side. They have bulked up immensely in the past two years and can take on anyone in the physical stakes and that was not the case a few short years ago.

Danny Cullen remains their most gifted leader while his brother-in-law Declan Coulter is deadly accurate from frees. Gerard Gilmore, Ronan McDermott, Richie Ryan and Barney Lafferty are all deadly strikers.

The defence has lost Joe Boyle, but Christopher McDermott, Sean McVeigh, Jack O’Loughlin and Stephen Gillespie are all towering figures while Michael Donoghue is a fine performer. This team is laced with power, panache and poise.

Hurling is growing at a steady rate in the county and the standard is rising all the time. And this group of special players are leading the charge. Mayo will bring loads of stung pride, yet Donegal should prevail - but it could be very close!
